Soviet To Approve U.S.-Kremlin Link

GENEVA (AP)—The Soviet Union announced today it is ready to accept a direct telecommunications link between Washington and the Kremlin to prevent an accidental outbreak of world war.

Soviet Ambassador Semyon K. Tsarapkin made the announcement in a session of the 17-nation disarmament conference.

The direct link was originally proposed by the United States as a priority measure to relieve world tension and prevent accidental war.

Tsarapkin said the Soviet Union is willing to negotiate such a link immediately, without waiting for agreement on a general disarmament treaty.

U.S. Ambassador Charles C. Stelle said the United States "warmly welcomes" Tsarapkin's announcement.

Tsarapkin said details should be worked out in separate negotiations by the United States and the Soviet Union. These talks could begin immediately.

He said each of the two governments should be left free to determine the exact point where the direct link should terminate in its own capital.

The so-called "red line" between Washington and the Kremlin was a feature of the original American proposals for a general disarmament treaty.

The United States last year suggested it should be considered separately from the disarmament treaty, bogging down an East-West stalemate.

Tsarapkin said each side should guarantee that material passed over the Red line would be forwarded at once to the responsible government organs. This presumably meant that the Red line could be made to establish direct contact, in case of emergency, between President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Earlier, Tsarapkin passed along an East German proposal for a friendship pact between East and West Germany as an initial step to a nonaggression treaty between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Communist Warsaw treaty bloc. This is an old gambit, rejected in the past by West Germany.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union's Lunik 4 flew within 10,000 miles of the moon today, Tass reported.

The Soviet news agency said the 3,130-pound moon probe was about 226,800 miles from the earth at 6 p.m. Moscow time—Friday morning U.S. time. The moon is about 238,854 miles from the earth.

A communique reported radio communications with the space probe good.

Army, Rebel Leaders Sift Truce Pact In Argentina

BULLETIN

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Truce talks came to a standstill in Argentina's navy revolt today. And so did the revolt. A meeting scheduled for sunrise between loyalist army chiefs and rebel negotiators failed to come off. No reason was given. The negotiators agreed in a post-midnight meeting to a set of conditions for the navy's surrender.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Army commanders and rebel navy leaders were to meet today to consider a conditional agreement hammered out by negotiators to end Argentina's four-day-old revolt.

There was no immediate indication whether diehard naval elements at Puerto Belgrano — the rebels' last stronghold, 350 miles south of Buenos Aires—would agree to the pact. It reportedly calls for cutting the navy's 35,000-man force at least in half.

Terms of the conditional agreement were pounded out by loyalist military leaders and Rear Adm. Eladio Vazquez, the rebel fleet commander, at a two-hour post-midnight session in Buenos Aires. In a terse communique they said agreement in principle had been reached on requirements to halt the fighting and return the armed forces to normal.

The communique did not spell out terms. Informed sources at Bahia Blanca, adjoining the Puerto Belgrano base, said they called for:

1. Unconditional surrender of the naval fleet and air force.
2. Reduction of the navy's maintenance force to a skeleton 2,500 men, which would at least halve the 35,000-man navy.
3. Surrender of navy men and civilians responsible for the revolt to be tried.
4. Repair by a naval unit of damage in the Magdalena area where the navy air force destroyed or damaged eight loyalist tanks and a number of buildings, killing 18.

The navy's strength has made it a commanding voice in Argentine politics ever since it played the major part in the overthrow of Dictator Juan Peron in 1955.

There was no indication that the army and air force, which remained loyal to President Jose Maria Guido, made any concessions concerning the June 23 presidential and congressional elections. The rebels said they rebelled because Guido planned to let the Peronists enter candidates and a Peronist victory was feared.

As his price for peace, Vazquez reportedly had demanded Guido's removal and cancellation of the elections.

A communique from Guido's loyalist military command said units sent to attack the rebels at Puerto Belgrano had been ordered to halt 55 miles from the big base.

FBI Directs Wide Hunt For 2 In Chester Holdup

Pair Flees With Loot Of $1,331

Men Brandish Guns At Staff In Hancock Savings And Loan

District police and sheriff's deputies, spearheaded by an FBI task force, continued an intensive effort today to identify and locate two tall bandits who robbed the Hancock County Federal Savings & Loan Association in Chester early Thursday afternoon of $1,331.

Seven FBI agents along with West Virginia State Police and Pennsylvania State Police and other district law officers converged upon the Chester area to aid Chester police and Hancock County sheriff's deputies in the hunt for the pair.

Sloppily Dressed

The two bandits, both about 25, sloppily dressed and unshaven, entered the lobby of the firm at Carolina Ave. and 3rd St., early yesterday afternoon and ordered the surprised clerks to put money in a brown paper sack. They were not masked.

Holding the clerks at bay with pistols, the pair then backed out of the building and apparently escaped in a 1957 white Chevrolet convertible with Pennsylvania license plates.

FBI agents were to question the employes of the firm this morning to obtain additional clues as to the identity of the two.

Yesterday afternoon, agents visited neighboring homes and businesses to learn if any had seen the approach or departure of the two.

No Significant Clue

The office of Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny said today it is without a significant clue to the identity of the bandits, who appar-

'Cooling Off' Period?

New Study Due In TFX Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — An extensive new study will be made on the cost of the TFX warplane.

The study will take up to 60 days and may provide a cooling off period in the hot dispute over whether the contract for the fighter-bombers would cost taxpayers unnecessary millions of dollars.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Investigations subcommittee which has been looking into the contract award, confirmed reports that the General Accounting Office will make the audit. GAO is the official watchdog agency for Congress.

McClellan estimated the job would take up to two months.

The subcommittee is investigating whether favoritism influenced the Pentagon's civilian secretaries to award the huge contract to the General Dynamics Corp. of Fort Worth, Tex. Military evaluation officers had picked a rival design and bid by the Boeing Co. of Seattle, Wash., as promising a better, cheaper plane.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, who overruled these evaluations, contends General Dynamics' design is better and would turn out to be cheaper in the long run.

The Pentagon estimates it will cost $6.5 billion to complete design, development and production of 1,700 of the TFX fighter-bombers. They are intended to become the most versatile warplane the armed forces ever had. The planes are to be added to the Air Force and Navy weapons systems.

Members of a military "source selection board" completed four days of testimony Thursday, firmly sticking to their findings in Boeing's favor.

But one of its members, Rear Adm. Frederick L. Ashworth, testified that "perhaps" the board did not do justice to its civilian superiors because, he said, he now believes it failed to argue strongly enough its point of view.

The board's chairman, Maj. Gen. R. G. Ruegg, testified that some features of the Boeing design yet may be incorporated in the TFX. (The initials stand for tactical fighter, experimental, although the plane is to be a bomber and reconnaissance aircraft, too).

Budget-Slash Drive Picking Up 'Steam'

Senate Committee Nips $771 Million In Defense Bids

WASHINGTON (AP) — The budget-cutting drive has picked up momentum on Capitol Hill.

The Senate Armed Services Committee Thursday chopped out $771 million in Defense Department requests for aircraft, missiles and other military hardware. But it went along with the House in voting an extra $363.7 million—which the administration doesn't want and probably won't spend—to speed development of the RS70 reconnaissance strike bomber.

Thus after the committee was finished, the military procurement bill totaled only $407.3 million less than the administration asked.

The House, despite objections of Postmaster General J. Edward Day and a barrage of letters and telegrams from postal employes, voted a reduction Thursday of $91,964,000 in appropriations for the Post Office Department. Day warned it might mean a reduction in postal service, including no more Saturday deliveries.

Chairman Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., called the defense cuts by the armed services committee "a very modest reduction in the numbers of aircraft, missiles, spare parts for them and research development."

And today the House Appropriations Committee stepped up its economy drive by whacking $202,750,600 from $1,641,507,106 requested by President Kennedy in emergency funds for miscellaneous federal agencies.

Thief Obtains 26 Diamonds At City Store

A small box containing a new shipment of 26 diamond rings was stolen late Thursday afternoon from Roberts Jewelry Store in the Little Building, police were told by the proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schlang.

The rings apparently were taken by a man posing as a customer who asked to use the telephone at the rear of the store while his woman companion kept the proprietors busy showing her wedding bands, police were told.

Mr. and Mrs. Schlang told Lt. Charles E. (Bill) Tice and Patrolman Karl Samples the loss included eight matching wedding sets — a total of 16 rings — along with six men's diamond rings and four diamond solitaires. The new shipment had been received at the store less than a half hour before the theft, they said. Officers did not obtain an estimate of the value.

The report of the robbery was telephoned at 4:33 p. m. to Patrolman Robert B. Pyle, desk of-

3,000 Cubans Training In U.S. Forces

Most Are Refugees, Others Vets Of Bay Of Pigs Invasion

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than 3,000 Cubans are training in the U.S. armed forces, the Defense Department said today.

Most are refugees who fled to this country. Others are veterans of the unsuccessful 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion—men who were imprisoned by the Castro government and then released for return to the United States.

The Cubans will not be organized into any special unit but assigned to various Army, Navy, Marine and Air Force units as they complete their training at four bases.

The program, the Pentagon announced at the outset, was intended to:

1. Assist refugees who have encountered difficulty in getting jobs here.
2. To develop the Cubans, "skills and abilities by service" in the U.S. forces.

President Kennedy, at his news conference Wednesday, commented that 400 to 500 Cubans have joined the U.S. Army, identifying them as former members of the Bay of Pigs operation.

Strike Ends!

Cleveland Presses To Roll Monday

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Cleveland's newspaper strike is over after a record 126 days. Employes of the Plain Dealer and the Cleveland Press & News were called to work today to prepare for Monday publication.

A handful of printers, mostly supervisors, returned to their jobs at the Plain Dealer at 12:22 a.m. a time which could be called the official end of the strike. It came just over an hour after the printers became the last of 11 unions to ratify contracts.

By a 339-286 vote, after a stormy three-hour debate, the printers ratified a 26-month contract their president, Clifford C. Hilpert, estimated as worth $13.95 in wages and benefits.

"We are extremely happy that this long and unfortunate strike is now over and we look forward to a Monday morning Plain Dealer," said Thomas Vail, vice president of the Forest City Publishing Co., which publishes Ohio's largest morning newspaper.

The Plain Dealer will be the first to hit the streets after a newspaper blackout that has lasted longer than any previous one in a major American city. The Teamsters Union started it by calling 450 drivers out Nov. 29. The New York newspaper strike, which ended Sunday night, was 114 days long, and a strike of newspaper teamsters in Minneapolis last year stretched over 116 days.

"I thought the vote might be close," said Hilpert, "but deep down in my heart I felt it would go through. I must say I'm glad it's over. Our strike was successful. It was tough on a lot of us, but we were determined to stay out until we got a satisfactory agreement."

Hilpert said the printers would sign the contract today in the office of Mayor Ralph S. Locher.

The Mayor and federal mediators Gilbert J. Seldin and James Macpherson aided in bringing about settlement of issues between three striking unions and the publishers. The unions were the Newspaper Guild, with 525 members, the Teamsters and printers, whose 620 members struck Jan. 28.

There was little jubilation from either union people or management after the long and costly struggle. Probably the happiest are the city's news-hungry readers, most of whom were asleep when the conclusion came.

County Grand Jury Will Act On 28 Cases

Panel Will Convene Monday At Lisbon In New Court Term

Prosecutor G. William Brokaw said today 28 cases await consideration by the Columbiana County Grand Jury to be seated Tuesday morning for the April term of Common Pleas Court.

The cases include 25 defendants and it is expected that several more will be presented before the jury is excused.

The new term will officially open at noon Monday with the Columbiana County Bar Association's dinner at the VFW hall at Lisbon, followed by its regular meeting at the Courthouse in the afternoon with Atty. Donald Elliott of Rogers, president, presiding. The bar group elected in January.

The 15-member panel will be seated Tuesday morning and will be sworn in by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard, who will handle criminal cases this term. A venire of 50 prospective grand jurors has been called to report 9 a.m.

After inspection of the County Jail in the forenoon, the panel will return after lunch and begin

Legislature Ends 13th Week

Not Father Of Highway Bonds Plan, Rhodes Says

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes has told a news conference he is not the father of a proposal to issue another $200 million in highway construction bonds.

Sen. Fred L. Hoffman, R-Hamilton, who offered the constitutional amendment to extend a bond issue originally authorized by the voters in 1953, said he had the idea that his proposal had administration support.

Rhodes' disclaimer of the bond issue extension came as lawmakers ended their 13th work week.

Hoffman's proposal seeks, by way of a constitutional amendment, to extend the life of the $500-million highway bond issue approved by the voters 10 years ago.

Hoffman says the two taxes now paying off the original bond issue would be sufficient to pay off both the old issue and the new one.

Pledged to pay the original issue are a special penny-a-gallon tax on gasoline and a special tax on big trucks with three or more axles—known as the axle-mile tax.

The new money Hffman seeks for highways would pay the state's share of the 50 - 50 deal with the federal government on major intercity thoroughfares not included in the federal interstate system. The federal government pays 90 per cent of the cost of interstate highways and Ohio, understandably, has directed most of its available construction money into that area.

After the supercharged debate Wednesday surrounding Senate passage of a bill modifying workmen's compensation laws, the legislative week ended quietly Thursday.

A proposed law introduced Thursday would repeal present Sunday closing laws but ban advertising or any other means of promotion of Sunday sales. The proposal by Sen. James H. Grose, R-Trumbull, was introduced while a House-passed measure revising the state's so-called blue laws is under consideration in a Senate committee.

Rural Areas Get Frost In Spring Cold Snap

Frost was reported in rural areas this morning as temperatures dipped below freezing in a spring cold snap.

The downtown had a chilly 30 degrees at 6 a.m. and there were unofficial lows of near 20 in the county.

The temperature will warm up, however, and today's range will be in the mid 50's and tonight's low will be 39 to 43. Saturday will see considerable cloudiness with little temperature change.

2,000 File Tax Form

LISBON — County Auditor Kenneth Bell said today about 2,000 of the expected 4,800 personal tax returns have been filed to date. The collection began Feb. 15. A penalty will be added on returns received after the deadline April 30, the auditor warned.

Cleveland Presses To Roll Monday

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Cleveland's newspaper strike is over after a record 126 days. Employes of the Plain Dealer and the Cleveland Press & News were called to work today to prepare for Monday publication.

A handful of printers, mostly supervisors, returned to their jobs at the Plain Dealer at 12:22 a.m. a time which could be called the official end of the strike. It came just over an hour after the printers became the last of 11 unions to ratify contracts.

By a 339-286 vote, after a stormy three-hour debate, the printers ratified a 26-month contract their president, Clifford C. Hilpert, estimated as worth $13.95 in wages and benefits.

"We are extremely happy that this long and unfortunate strike is now over and we look forward to a Monday morning Plain Dealer," said Thomas Vail, vice president of the Forest City Publishing Co., which publishes Ohio's largest morning newspaper.

The Plain Dealer will be the first to hit the streets after a newspaper blackout that has lasted longer than any previous one in a major American city. The Teamsters Union started it by calling 450 drivers out Nov. 29. The New York newspaper strike, which ended Sunday night, was 114 days long, and a strike of newspaper teamsters in Minneapolis last year stretched over 116 days.

"I thought the vote might be close," said Hilpert, "but deep down in my heart I felt it would go through. I must say I'm glad it's over. Our strike was successful. It was tough on a lot of us, but we were determined to stay out until we got a satisfactory agreement."

Hilpert said the printers would sign the contract today in the office of Mayor Ralph S. Locher.

The Mayor and federal mediators Gilbert J. Seldin and James Macpherson aided in bringing about settlement of issues between three striking unions and the publishers. The unions were the Newspaper Guild, with 525 members, the Teamsters and printers, whose 620 members struck Jan. 28.

There was little jubilation from either union people or management after the long and costly struggle. Probably the happiest are the city's news-hungry readers, most of whom were asleep when the conclusion came.

County Grand Jury Will Act On 28 Cases

Panel Will Convene Monday At Lisbon In New Court Term

Prosecutor G. William Brokaw said today 28 cases await consideration by the Columbiana County Grand Jury to be seated Tuesday morning for the April term of Common Pleas Court.

The cases include 25 defendants and it is expected that several more will be presented before the jury is excused.

The new term will officially open at noon Monday with the Columbiana County Bar Association's dinner at the VFW hall at Lisbon, followed by its regular meeting at the Courthouse in the afternoon with Atty. Donald Elliott of Rogers, president, presiding. The bar group elected in January.

The 15-member panel will be seated Tuesday morning and will be sworn in by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard, who will handle criminal cases this term. A venire of 50 prospective grand jurors has been called to report 9 a.m.

After inspection of the County Jail in the forenoon, the panel will return after lunch and begin

2 Youths Held In Auto Theft

Two teen-age boys will be turned over to Pennsylvania State Police today, following their apprehension by Midland police early this morning after a chase on foot when the pair fled from a stolen car involved in a wreck on Midland Ave.

The pair — a 17-year-old from West Middlesex, Pa., and his companion, 15, from Masury, Ohio — were cornered near Wood Ln. about 2:30 a.m. by suspicious Midland police, who had trailed them up Midland Ave. and saw them ram into the rear end of a Smiths Ferry area man's auto.

Midland officers said the two will be turned over to Pennsylvania State Police in Mercer County, where they started their spree Thursday afternoon by stealing one car and driving it until it broke down.

The 17-year-old had been visiting at the home of the younger boy when the two decided to drive to West Virginia to see the older boy's father, Midland police said.

Stealing a 1955 Plymouth sedan near West Middlesex, the pair drove south on Route 18. The auto broke down once but the boys managed to get it running and continued south of New Castle where it broke down again.

Abandoning the car, the two thumbed a ride of a few miles until the unidentified motorist stopped at a tavern. The boys then stole the nearby car of Leroy M. Householder of Ellwood City, police continued.

They then drove into Beaver Falls and continued to Midland and were driving down Midland Ave. when they spotted a police cruiser.

The cruiser pulled over to allow them to pass but the boys, apparently frightened, continued to watch the cruiser and drove into the rear of a 1960 Oldsmobile owned by Rocco Dapollonia of Smiths Ferry R.D. 1, causing extensive damage to the left rear.

After the crash, the boys jumped out and ran but were trapped in the alley about a block away, police said.

Questioned by Midland officers, the two admitted stealing both cars. The 17-year-old had served time at George Junior Republic, police said.

hearing 10 witnesses in eight cases, Brokaw said.

The jury is expected to report sometime Thursday.

Cases to be heard are:

Helen Brown, 816 Dewey Ave., East Liverpool, and Ida Infanti, 1315 Commerce St., Wellsville, both charged with selling liquor to juveniles at the Star-Lite Cafe Sept. 22.

Ruth S. Wright of Hubbard, possession of narcotics in East Palestine Oct. 10.

John M. Wasson, 34, of Lawrenceville, Va., carrying concealed weapons Jan. 9.

Edwin Charles Mollenkopf of Youngstown, non-support of his seven minor children.

John R. Reed, 32, and George W. Sims, 34, both of Wellsville, breaking and entering the Super-Foods Store in Wellsville Jan. 27.

Robert Keith Owens, 21, and Leroy Ray Walker, 19, both of New Cumbreland, theft of car owned by John Prezzia of Wellsville Feb. 4.

Harold Dana Heater, 31, of Louisville, operating a motor vehicle without the owner's consent.

Winston Twyman of Midland, assault with a dangerous weapon Feb. 2 in East Liverpool.

Charles Mercer Jr., 216 W. Second St., East Liverpool, burglary of the Keys Co. in East Liverpool Feb. 9.

George Crawford, 28, of 1106½ Commerce St., Wellsville, carrying a concealed weapon in East Liverpool March 3.

Mary Delillo, 65 Main St., East Palestine, grand larceny at Bargain Center in East Palestine Feb. 19.

Clayton Hitchcock of Toronto, grand larceny of tools from the car of George Ruhl in Wellsville Nov. 28.

James R. Higgins Jr., 19, Richard A. Riley, 19, James Banner, 19, all of Rogers, and Robert J. Gorby, 20, of Negley, destruction of pay telephone March 16 in Rogers.

Amil Alfred Dinsio, 26, of Poland, Harold J. Dailey, 32, and Daniel N. Marshall, 33, of Youngstown, carrying concealed weapons and possession of burglary tools.

Floyd M. Walters, 20, Bob McCourt, 18, and Ronald L. McCourt, 20, all of Irondale R.D. 1, burglary of the Martin Sohio Service Station in Wellsville March 26.

ficer at headquarters. He dispatched Officer Samples, who made a preliminary investigation and then summoned Lt. Tice, officer in charge of the shift.

Lt. Tice said Mr. and Mrs. Schlang gave him this account of the theft:

A shipment of rings was received at 4:10 and Schlang was checking it on a counter near a safe at the rear of the store. A man and woman entered and stopped about midway toward the rear of the store, near a case containing wedding bands.

Schlang put the box containing the new rings on top of the safe and moved to the center of the store to greet the customers and wait on them. The couple asked to see some wedding bands. Schlang removed a tray of rings from the case and showed them to the woman.

While she was examining the rings, the man asked to use the telephone, which is in the rear of the store on a counter near the safe.

The man used the telephone and the woman selected a ring, paying for it. Then the couple left. When Schlang returned to the rear of the store to continue checking the shipment, he found the rings were missing.

Officers said the box containing the rings is 6-x-2-x-1 inches.

Niles Driver Forfeits In West End Collision

Cited after a three-way crash Monday afternoon on a freeway ramp, William F. Prosser, 30, of Niles forfeited a $32.50 bond in Municipal Court today on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Prosser was cited after his auto hit a halted car driven by Joseph Reed of Shadyside Ave. and shoved it forward into another halted auto operated by Mrs. Doris Angus of 8th Ave., LaCroft, officers said.

Meanwhile, Frank B. Nentwick, 39, of Post Office Box 594 was fined $5 and costs on a charge he crashed a stop sign at 12:46 a. m. today at E. 4th and Walnut Sts. Nentwick pleaded "no contest," but was convicted on the testimony of Patrolman Howard Bosworth, who said he observed the violation while in a cruiser which was halted for the intersection.

Riverside Ave. Slated For Cleaning Tonight

Wellsville's street sweeper will continue its busy schedule tonight on Riverside Ave. between 3rd and 9th Sts., Safety - Service Director Fred Baldsare reported.

The director asked that residents along the route sweep their sidewalks before the sweeper equipment arrives. The job is scheduled between 4 and midnight. The streets will be posted and autos that are parked along the route will be ticketed, he added.

The same practices will apply for sweeping Saturday between 8 a. m. and 4 p. m. of Broadway, between 3rd and 9th Sts., both sides. The sweeper cleaned the super-road at the lower end of the city last night.

Meanwhile, slagging of unimproved streets and alleys continued today from 15th St. to West End.

Ronnie Ferraro, leading jockey in 1962, won his first stakes race at Laurel last spring. He took the Maryland Derby with Double Heritage.

Holdup

ently sped away before they could become trapped in roadblocks set up on major highways in the area.

Police set up roadblocks on Route 30 and Route 66 in West Virginia and Route 30 and Route 18 in Pennsylvania. Other officers set up roadblocks on rural roads leading into Pennsylvania. About 10 cruisers patroled the rural roads in Hancock County. City police blocked both bridges.

The sheriff's office said the bandits were white and hatless.

The first subject was described as 6-foot-1, 150 pounds, thinly built, light complexion with long, dark, straight hair. He was wearing a bulky light brown sweater and dark trousers and carrying a heavy caliber revolver with a 4-inch barrel.

In Bulky Sweater

The second subject was 6-foot-2, 170 pounds, medium complexion, deep set eyes and high cheekbones, with long, straight blond hair. This bandit wore a light gray bulky sweater and carried a light caliber revolver with an 8-to-10-inch barrel, possibly a .22-caliber target pistol, deputies said.

The bandits apparently had a head start of 20 to 25 minutes before roadblocks could be set up. The sheriff's office in New Cumberland was alerted about 25 minutes after the holdup, and a deputy was at the scene in about four minutes. Chester police apparently were the first called. The FBI arrived at the savings and loan firm in about an hour and 70 minutes after the bandits fled.

Enter Loan Section

The bandits entered the lobby of the savings firm shortly after 1 p. m. and then walked through a door on the left side into the mortgage loan department.

Robert Richmond, a teller in the loan department, had just returned from lunch and was standing at the counter when the pair approached, one stopping at the counter and the other slightly to the rear.

Miss Shelby Yost, a stenographer, was standing slightly to the right of Richmond and Miss Saundra Aken, another teller, was sitting at a posting machine.

One of the bandits asked Richmond for change for a $20 bill. When the teller opened the cash drawer, both flashed guns, warned the startled clerks it was a holdup and shoved a brown paper sack across the counter and demanded Richmond put the money in the bag.

Clerks Are Warned

The clerks said the men warned they meant business and were not kidding. "And they weren't toys," Miss Yost emphasized, referring to the pistols the men aimed at them.

After Richmond scooped the cash from the drawer into the sack, the men backed toward the door, still menacing the clerks with the guns. One backed into a table near the door before both walked out.

Richmond said he didn't see the pair pass a large window at the front of the office, indicating they probably turned west toward their parked auto.

Mrs. Georgia Cook, a stenographer, was sitting at her desk at the rear of the office and heard the ringing of a phone close to where Miss Aken was working. She wondered why it wasn't answered, unaware the two were holding the guns on the three employes.

Quick Check Made

Immediately after the bandits left and word was flahsed of the holdup, bank officers headed by James E. Elliott, secretary-treasurer, made an immediate check of the drawer and determined the loss at $1,331.

The loot was in denominations of $20, $5, $10 and $1.

Richmond and the two women said the men appeared to be between 22 and 25 years old. "You could tell by the cut of their clothes they were young men," Miss Aken explained.

Richmond said both appeared to be about 6-foot-2.

The three employes said one of the pistols had a barrel 4-6 inches long while the other gun had a longer barrel.

Harold Ossman, assistant treasurer, encountered the men in the firm's parking lot prior to the holdup as he returned from lunch.

Sees Auto Depart

Ossman said he had started up a ramp off Carolina Ave. on the east side of the building and saw the white convertible waiting until he arrived before it pulled away. The car later was identified as the auto in which the holdup pair fled.

The assistant treasurer said he assumed the men were looking over the building before making their move.

Deputy Sheriffs Ed Frankovitch and Roger R. Cline investigated.

While they were talking with officials of the firm, two agents from the Pittsburgh FBI office arrived to investigate and began questioning Richmond, Miss Yost, Miss Aken, Elliott and other officials.

The bandits entered the lobby of the savings firm shortly after 1 p. m. and then walked through a door on the left side into the mortgage loan department.

Robert Richmond, a teller in the loan department, had just returned from lunch and was standing at the counter when the pair approached, one stopping at the counter and the other slightly to the rear.

Miss Shelby Yost, a stenographer, was standing slightly to the right of Richmond and Miss Saundra Aken, another teller, was sitting at a posting machine.

One of the bandits asked Richmond for change for a $20 bill. When the teller opened the cash drawer, both flashed guns, warned the startled clerks it was a holdup and shoved a brown paper sack across the counter and demanded Richmond put the money in the bag.

Clerks Are Warned

The clerks said the men warned they meant business and were not kidding. "And they weren't toys," Miss Yost emphasized, referring to the pistols the men aimed at them.

After Richmond scooped the cash from the drawer into the sack, the men backed toward the door, still menacing the clerks with the guns. One backed into a table near the door before both walked out.

Richmond said he didn't see the pair pass a large window at the front of the office, indicating they probably turned west toward their parked auto.

Mrs. Georgia Cook, a stenographer, was sitting at her desk at the rear of the office and heard the ringing of a phone close to where Miss Aken was working. She wondered why it wasn't answered, unaware the two were holding the guns on the three employes.

Quick Check Made

Immediately after the bandits left and word was flahsed of the holdup, bank officers headed by James E. Elliott, secretary-treasurer, made an immediate check of the drawer and determined the loss at $1,331.

The loot was in denominations of $20, $5, $10 and $1.

Richmond and the two women said the men appeared to be between 22 and 25 years old. "You could tell by the cut of their clothes they were young men," Miss Aken explained.

Richmond said both appeared to be about 6-foot-2.

The three employes said one of the pistols had a barrel 4-6 inches long while the other gun had a longer barrel.

Harold Ossman, assistant treasurer, encountered the men in the firm's parking lot prior to the holdup as he returned from lunch.

Sees Auto Depart

Ossman said he had started up a ramp off Carolina Ave. on the east side of the building and saw the white convertible waiting until he arrived before it pulled away. The car later was identified as the auto in which the holdup pair fled.

The assistant treasurer said he assumed the men were looking over the building before making their move.

Deputy Sheriffs Ed Frankovitch and Roger R. Cline investigated.

While they were talking with officials of the firm, two agents from the Pittsburgh FBI office arrived to investigate and began questioning Richmond, Miss Yost, Miss Aken, Elliott and other officials.

Not An Essay For The Teacher

One of our readers has made a suggestion about a matter so obvious it may be hard for some people to see.

He thinks we should call attention to the fact that in our representative form of government the people who represent us need to be in touch with voters back home.

The most direct way to get in touch, next to face-to-face conversation, is by mail. The trouble is, our reader believes, that many people choke up at the idea of writing a letter or even a message on a correspondence card.

He suggests that we tell people it doesn't matter whether the message is a masterpiece; that what impresses the legislator is hearing from a constituent over the constituent's signature.

Tell them, he says, they aren't writing a theme for a school teacher. Tell them they are showing their interest in a public issue.

What they're doing, as a matter of fact, is exercising the right to petition. Our reader is right when he says it doesn't matter how the petition is phrased.

If a voter makes his views known, that is what matters.

The address is not too important, when public officials are concerned. The Post Office will figure out whether messages to Washington go to the House Office Building or the Senate Office Building—or their new additions—as long as the name is on the envelope and the mail gets to Washington, D.C.

Messages to the governor of the state will reach him if sent to the capitol in the capital city. Local legislators' addresses are easy to obtain, usually by looking them up in the telephone book.

And what if the writer doesn't know who the officials are? Well, in that case he has been showing so little interest in his government he had better refrain from blasting off until he knows at least whom the conscientious citizens elected to carry on public business.

Safety-Minded

"Industrial safety" means just that in Columbiana County.

If there was any question about the effectiveness of the program, it should have been dispelled by Wednesday night's annual awards banquet at Salem.

More than 400 representatives of county firms attended, an emphatic demonstration of an intensive year-around campaign to reduce accidents.

Columbiana County can be proud of its industrial safety program. The continued interest and cooperation of companies and employes can make it even more beneficial in the future.

Paring The Budget Fat

We take Ohio Sen. Young at his word when he says foreign aid could be cut a billion dollars and defense a billion and a-half.

Sen. Young is in an extraordinary position when he speaks on public issues. He is an officeholder who has said he will not be a candidate for re-election.

He is a Democrat who does not let party loyalty interfere with his judgment on nonpartisan issues.

Speaking in Canton, where he was appearing as the guest of 18th annual district conference of United Steelworkers, Sen. Young warned that the Kennedy administration would have to cut spending substantially if it wants passage of its proposed tax cut.

SEN. YOUNG has pointed up this truth about public spending that isn't much different from a truth about private spending.

The truth is: There are no irreducible maximums; there are only irreducible minimums.

Every multi-billion-dollar item in the federal budget could be cut by hundreds of millions. It is a reducible maximum.

When the Kennedy administration requests $4½ billion for foreign aid, which is a long-term program, not a nannual cash item, the request could have been $5½ or $3½ billion just as logically. It is only an estimate of probabilities.

In a defense budget of $50 billion, it would be possible to jab blindly with a pencil and choose items that could be dispensed with.

To be sure, every one would be protected fiercely by those who have a special interest in it. That is what a budget is—a listing of special interest projects given tentative clearance by the Bureau of the Budget.

The list will be studied and revised by the House and Senate. Some items will be given more of the people's money than was asked for in the budget.

But what has become critically important is whether less of the people's money than was asked for will be spent over-all.

ANYBODY can spend money. That's always the easy way out.

It takes governmental genius to save money.

Every saving wounds the outraged feelings of one or more special-interest groups.

No one thinks about the national interest.

We'll accept Sen. Young' estimate that $2½ billion could be taken out of foreign aid and national defense. Then we'd take another billion out of agricultural subsidies to farmers and the custodians of agricultural surpluses, another half billion out of foreign aid, another whole billion out of defense, a hundred million here and a hundred million there until we had proved Washington can control spending.

At that point we could keep our blood from running cold when New Frontiersmen who say they can find no fat in a $98 billion budget start talking about cutting taxes to put more fat on U.S. taxpayers.

Just So It's Green

By Truman Twill

It was a relief to know this Spring that all I needed at the seed store was something to cover the bald places in the yard and a packet of lettuce seed.

Next year I will skip the lettuce.

Beginning 12 years ago, after a frenzy of gardening the preceding summer, I quietly balked a little harder each year at the idea of planting and reaping. The idea always came from onlookers.

I have an unspoken agreement with farmers who make a living by raising food and fiber. If they promise not to write pieces like this for the newspapers, I promise not to go through the motions of beating them at their own game.

The United States has swung over from being a predominantly rural economy and has been converted into an industrial economy. It now takes only a small fraction of the population to raise all we can eat, sell and give away, and I do not aim to belong to the small fraction.

Gardening is fun?

Only if it can be done correctly, with something to show for it besides a lame back. That's why I'll be needing nothing from the seed store this year but lettuce seed and enough grass seed to cover the bald spots.

Later on, we'll plant a few flowers. Here again, there will be no horning in on specialists. With a few exceptions, such as nasturtiums and several kinds of flowers that do better if raised where they are going to bloom I will stay out of their racket if they will stay out of mine.

I will go further than that. Even if they nib into my racket. I don't have time to keep theirs because I don't have time to keep down the weeds, fight bugs, squash worms, moisten the soil and fret about funguses.

Ultimately, if all goes well, Twillery flower-gardening will be confined to hardy perennials that grow so prolifically they must be stamped out like sin and new ideas. Nothing will need to be coddled or cultivated.

This also applies to grass.

I used to want a velvety lawn, free from weeds and soft as puppy hair. Now I am content to have the Twillery acreage covered with verdure, as long as it's green.

There's room for all varieties. Every kind of grass that grows in this latitude is there and every kind of weed. It's like having a botanical garden. In some places, crab grass does best, in other places fox tails. Thistles flourish some places and not others. Blue grass, white clover, red clover, dandelions, plantain, chickweed, ground ivy, Spanish needles, dock and wild chicory are all mixed together in carefree profusion.

It's an uncultivated mess.

But it's green. And with the sheep to help out, it can be kept reasonably short during the brief season when things feels like growing.

No one even talks about getting rid of the weeds anymore, just as no one talks about raising a lot of vegetables, fruit and maybe a few thousand pounds of homegrown meat. Each man to his own racket and devil take the sucker who tries to beat the other man at his.

It's our hunch Sir Winston Churchill isn't fooled by the honorary U.S. citizenship bestowed on him.

He knows it is not like being knighted, which is the British way of giving recognition to people currently useful and who could be more so if they had a badge of merit.

He knows it is not because he has been so well-loved that honorary U.S. Citizenship is an outpouring of affection.

Rather, it's because Congress, reflecting what is in the minds of many Americans, wanted to make a gesture of respect for one of the last of the individualists—the greatest of his time.

Winston Churchill spent a large part of his life looking down the throats of his critics and his enemies. Even in British politics, which permits a man to swim upstream if he gets a kick out of it, he was a chronic wronger.

He was headstrong and arrogant. He was over-confident of his own opinions. He was intolerant of ideas he disagreed with and people he disliked.

His tongue was sharp. He was self-indulgent. Much of the time he took what the United States would call unfair advantage of his position. He was a snob.

He was all these things—but many more.

He was one of the great personalities of his era—adventuresome as a young man, doughty as a middle-aged man, unconquerable as an old man.

In an era when mankind seemed to be a flock of sheep preyed on by a band of wolves, Winston Churchill was one of a few with the guts and integrity to inspire leadership and make the sheep want to fight back.

He was listened to because he had spoken up in times when no one welcomed unsolicited opinions that later proved to be correct.

U.S. Probes Pension Funds

By Victor Riesel

CHICAGO

Bombs bursting in air and the arsonists' red glare at times drowned out the electioneering shouts of the recent mayoralty campaign. The noise has reached into the White House and has disturbed the Kennedys.

Victor Riesel

But dramatic as is the mobs' defiance of what passes for law and order, there is a more meaningful story being told by nervous witnesses before a mighty secretive grand jury in the federal building here.

Federal agents and attorneys have discovered a network of men who have been making millions of dollars placing loans which come out of a big union's pension fund. This special probe has been concentrating on seven such loans.

The "middle men" have netted a cool million dollars in kickbacks and finder's fees on just these seven placements. This network now under investigation reaches from Chicago to New York, Washington, and into Miami.

INDICTMENTS ARE expected in 90 days — probably on charges of volation of the income tax laws. The bird dogs for the men who really have the power to place millions of dollars in loans from these workers' pension funds have attempted to conceal their receipt of the kickbacks and finder's fees. Some of the finders are tied to the toughest of the underworld.

After this probe the Justice Department is expected to open similar investigations in other cities.

Few federal law enforcement crackdowns could be more significant. Pension funds should be sacred trusts. In them is the hope of the aging worker. In them is more money than in the combined gold reserves of the NATO countries — and that includes the United States. They are so vast that the President has asked for a special report on the impact of the funds on the nation.

A few days ago the Labor Department reported the latest available figures. As of 1960 there was well over $52 billion in private welfare and pension benefit plans.

Most of these funds are meticulously administered. Billions are in the careful hands of big insurance companies. Other billions are handled scrupulously by bank But so vast is the total pension fund sum and so rapidly is it growing that it soon will be the nation's greatest cache of liquid assets. No chances should be taken.

IT IS ESTIMATED that the pension funds increase by $4.5 billion a year. This means that the pension and welfare funds now total well over $61 billion.

Industry contributes over $11 billion a year into 120,510 funds now on file in the Labor Department. Over $7 billion is paid out yearly in benefits. There just isn't any similar financial operation in this world — either side of the iron and bamboo curtains.

And it's just in its diaper stage. In 10 years these funds will top $100 billion.

What happens to all this money? Some of it is managed by joint labor-industry trustees. Some of it is administered by management.

How is it invested? There is a growing trend to placement in mortgages. Latest available figures reveal that over $15 billion is in corporate bonds. There is almost $12 billion in common stock, which has voting rights in companies. There is some $600 million in preferred stocks.

CONSIDERING the condition of my own exchequer, this is awesome. There is at least $485 million in cash.

Government bonds aren't really in the running any more. The total in this form is $2 billion. There was a trend towards the stock market until recently. But then came the shakeout last May. Now there is an eagerness for mortgages. These now total over $900 million.

About $19 billion is in the hands of the insurance companies.

So the men who handle such funds must be antiseptically clean. The vast bulk of them are. But some are not. Some fund administrators have permitted the money entrusted to them to flow into underworld operations in the mortgage field. Obviously the middleman in such an operation can make himself a bundle. But hiding it is another thing — as those before the Chicago grand jury have discovered.

That's fine. Ninety-nine per cent purity is just not enough where the working peoples' money and future are concerned.

Rich Get Riches

By William B. Dickinson

The 1963 baseball season opens Monday when President Kennedy throws out the ball at D.C. Stadium for the game between the Washington Senators and the Baltimore Orioles.

Baseball's long season ends with a World Series bang but opens in Washington with a whimper. Suspicion is that the American League keeps a franchise in the nation's capital only so the President won't have to leave town to toss out the first ball.

The lowly Senators seem devoted to giving annual confirmation to that old saw about Washington being first in war, first in peace, and last in you-know-what. That has been their position since Calvin Griffith wearied of his role as league patsy and moved his squad to Minneapolis.

In Washington, the cry of "Who's on first?" has acquired a pathetic ring of truth. The Nats acquired a promising first baseman named Rogelio Alverez in a winter trade, but Rogelio can't get Fidel Castro's permission to leave Cuba.

Even baseball's new strike zone can't change the Las Vegas odds that favor the New York Yankees to capture their fourth straight American League pennant. Only Cleveland (1954) and Chicago (1959) have interrupted the Yankee pennant string that begun in 1940.

The National League shows a better balance, with five different pennant winners in a row. That is one reason why the NL teams outdrew those of the American League in attendance last year—11,360,377 to 10,015,056.

Professional football and basketball hold draft sessions on all available talent, with the bottom teams getting first pick. Baseball perpetuates dynasties. Even the bonus system for signing promising players favors affluent teams.

Television has made the rich guys richer. Broadcasting Magazine estimates that the 20 major league teams will split a $13.1 million broadcasting pie in 1963—up $325,000 from last year. The loot is unevenly spread, with the Yankees leading the American League with $1,200,000 for their rights and the Senators at the bottom with a mere $300,000.

The figures do not include $2,225,000 paid by CBS and NBC for nationally televised weekend games. A CBS-TV contract with the Yankees calls for braodcasting all weekend games at home, except the last three in September. Visiting clubs will have to be satisfied with the publicity because there is no arrangement to share these proceeds.

CBS told Broadcasting that Yankee games have consistently given the network a high rating, but asserted that when the neglected teams become top attractions, they will be considered by CBS-TV, too.

All teams start with equal records in the 162-game regular schedule, though not with equal expectations.

Early pilgrims in Asia may have "invented" felt. Using sheep's wool to line their hide shoes, pilgrims on long treks created enough pressure in the shoe to cause the fibers to interlock and become felt.

GRIN AND BEAR IT — By George Lichty

Image Of Weakness

By David Lawrence

U.S. Stand On Cuba Seen Appeasement

Thousands of Soviet troops are apparently going to remain in Cuba indefinitely, and the U.S. government evidently isn't going to do anything about it but write notes. While the number of "withdrawals" is announced, no official information is forthcoming as to the number of replacements. All the members of the Soviet army in Cuba wear civilian clothes.

David Lawrence

There seems, moreover, to be a tacit and unwritten agreement that not only will there be no invasion of Cuba by this country but that the Soviet army on the island and Castro troops will be protected by the United States against all outside attacks or invasions.

This paradox is occurring while tens of millions of dollars are spent annually to create abroad an "image" of the United States that will command respect and support as against Communist imperialism.

Billions are about to be spent, also, in Latin America by our government in the battle against Communism. Psychological warfare today is almost as important, if not more so, than diplomacy used to be.

But what kind of "image" is the United States creating in Latin America? And who is creating that "image?" It is not the official information agency, with its managed broadcasts, but the White House and State Department, which can by their acts and pronouncements produce unfavorable impressions on the peoples of other countries.

THE PRESIDENT has directed that the Cuban exiles be prevented from liberating their fellow citizens by any acts initiated inside this country. This is a role of "neutralism" in the Western Hemisphere in place of the Monroe Doctrine. The explanation given by President Kennedy is that otherwise there might possibly be serious complications for the United States in Europe.

This view, however, has already been interpreted in Latin America as a policy of timidity and fear. It is regarded as an abandonment of Cuba to Castro — as a means of strengthening him.

The administration here may protest that this is farthest from its thoughts, but the policy may have that effect just the same.

The people of Latin America know the difference between resoluteness and irresoluteness.

If it is a violation of the "neutrality" laws of the United States, for instance, to allow expenditions to take the big risks that exile Cubans wish to take to carry on forays along the coast of Cuba, then, it is asked, why does the U.S. government keep on making "unneutral" statements that tell those same Cuban exiles to look forward to resolution as a means of liberation?

Such declarations were repeated several times by the administration in recent months. This had a profound effect on the anti-Castro Cubans.

They came to believe that the U.S. government is behind them. But what do they see now? The Washington administration not only orders the Cubans seized if they try to launch any military raids from this country, but it has persuaded the British government also to seize raiders.

Will the Latin-American governments now feel morally bound to adopt the same course that Washington has urged on Great Britain? Will the Latin-American governments be requested by the United States to prevent the use of their territory as a base of operations for the Cuban exiles?

THE PSYCHOLOGICAL effect of the latest turn in the Kennedy-Rusk policies can only be damaging and discouraging to the people inside Latin America who have no illusions about the problem of Communist infiltration or Castro's deliberate attempts to subvert many countries in this hemisphere in aid of Communist objectives.

While the raids launched against Cuba would themselves be mere pinpricks or 'ineffective," as President Kennedy sees it, it is out of such valiant and sacrificial expeditions that the spirit of revoluiton is stimulated and the moral of the insurgents is heightened where a dictatorship is in power.

The "image" of weakness which the U.S. government is creating for itself abroad with respect to Cuba is in large part due to the openly but vaguely expressed fear of "international complications." This seems to accompany almost every move of American foreign policy nowadays where Cuba is concerned.

The failure of the Soviet government to withdraw all its troops from Cuba, after five months of note-writing between Moscow and Washington, is being treated here with faint words of remonstrance.

The fact that a European power has violated the Monroe Doctrine and maintains any troops or weapons on Cuban soil has been dealt with gently by the Washington government.

To those who talk constantly of "escalation" and the dangers of nuclear war, all this may seem expedient. But it is precisely the kind of appeasement that has led to war in the past.

Indeed, the administration's policy is not only presenting in Latin America an "image" of fear of Castro and the Soviets on the part of the United States, but it could have the dangerous effect of making the people of Western Europe and the captive peoples of Eastern Europe also believe that when the chips are down the United States will not pursue firm policies against Soviet aggression anywhere.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Mrs. Mabel Workman was elected president of the Newell Child Health Study Club and Mrs. William Jones vice president.

City Treasurer George B. Boice announced his candidacy for renomination at the Republican primaries in August.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The Washington School baskebtall team was presented the annual trophy for the city grade school basketball championship by H. D. Rist, president of the Grade School Athletic Association.

Representing the Ceramic City Rifle Club, George Pullins, Ralph Green and John Gallimore, explained the value of a rifle range at the Casting Club's course.

TEN YEARS AGO — William Glover was installed commander of the Chester Veterans of Foreign Wars and Harry Wilson vice commander.

Mose Adams, George Knox and Paul Seevers were enrolled as members of American Legion Post 115 of Newell.

Plane Flies Itself

LONDON — New push button equipment developed in Britain makes it possible for an aircraft to fly itself to its destination, with no navigator aboard and the pilot himself flying "hands off" the controls.

The system is being produced by the Decca Navigator Co. whose "pictorial presentation" system of navigation is already widely used.

Under the newly developed system, an aircraft accepts from the ground information on its current position.

The map reference of the destination is fed into a small computer in the aircraft, which then works out the necessary course to reach that destination from the aircraft's existing position, and feeds that course into the automatic pilot, which in turn flies the aircraft along it.

The captain of the aircraft has a moving chart in front of him which continually pictorially shows him where he is, while a ground station can keep a similar check on the aircraft's position.

If desired, map references of destinations can be built in to a special switch in the aircraft's cockpit in advance, so that merely by turning the switch in flight the pilot knows that automatically his aircraft will be flown towards the destination of his choice.

The system is part of the "harco" I hyperbolic area coverage — method of aerial navigation being submitted to the International Eurocontrol Organization as a possible standard navigations system for the future in Western Europe.

A high accuracy is claimed for the device, and it is thought that it could greatly facilitate tighter air traffic control in the future in increasingly congested air space.

When the Kennedy administration requests $4½ billion for foreign aid, which is a long-term program, not a nannual cash item, the request could have been $5¼ or $3¾ billion just as logically. It is only an estimate of probabilities.

In a defense budget of $50 billion, it would be possible to jab blindly with a pencil and choose items that could be dispensed with.

To be sure, every one would be protected fiercely by those who have a special interest in it. That is what a budget is—a listing of special interest projects given tentative clearance by the Bureau of the Budget.

The list will be studied and revised by the House and Senate. Some items will be given more of the people's money than was asked for in the budget.

But what has become critically important is whether less of the people's money than was asked for will be spent over-all.

ANYBODY can spend money. That's always the easy way out.

It takes governmental genius to save money.

Every saving wounds the outraged feelings of one or more special-interest groups.

No one thinks about the national interest.

We'll accept Sen. Young' estimate that $2½ billion could be taken out of foreign aid and national defense. Then we'd take another billion out of agricultural subsidies to farmers and the custodians of agricultural surpluses, another half billion out of foreign aid, another whole billion out of defense, a hundred million here and a hundred million there until we had proved Washington can control spending.

At that point we could keep our blood from running cold when New Frontiersmen who say they can find no fat in a $98 billion budget start talking about cutting taxes to put more fat on U.S. taxpayers.

Just So It's Green

By Truman Twill

It was a relief to know this Spring that all I needed at the seed store was something to cover the bald places in the yard and a packet of lettuce seed.

Next year I will skip the lettuce.

Beginning 12 years ago, after a frenzy of gardening the preceding summer, I quietly balked a little harder each year at the idea of planting and reaping. The idea always came from onlookers.

I have an unspoken agreement with farmers who make a living by raising food and fiber. If they promise not to write pieces like this for the newspapers, I promise not to go through the motions of beating them at their own game.

The United States has swung over from being a predominantly rural economy and has been converted into an industrial economy. It now takes only a small fraction of the population to raise all we can eat, sell and give away, and I do not aim to belong to the small fraction.

Gardening is fun?

Only if it can be done correctly, with something to show for it besides a lame back. That's why I'll be needing nothing from the seed store this year but lettuce seed and enough grass seed to cover the bald spots.

Later on, we'll plant a few flowers. Here again, there will be no horning in on specialists. With a few exceptions, such as nasturtiums and several kinds of flowers that do better if raised where they are going to bloom I will stay out of their racket if they will stay out of mine.

I will go further than that. Even if they nib into my racket. I don't have time to keep theirs because I don't have time to keep down the weeds, fight bugs, squash worms, moisten the soil and fret about funguses.

Ultimately, if all goes well, Twillery flower-gardening will be confined to hardy perennials that grow so prolifically they must be stamped out like sin and new ideas. Nothing will need to be coddled or cultivated.

This also applies to grass.

I used to want a velvety lawn, free from weeds and soft as puppy hair. Now I am content to have the Twillery acreage covered with verdure, as long as it's green.

There's room for all varieties. Every kind of grass that grows in this latitude is there and every kind of weed. It's like having a botanical garden. In some places, crab grass does best, in other places fox tails. Thistles flourish some places and not others. Blue grass, white clover, red clover, dandelions, plantain, chickweed, ground ivy, Spanish needles, dock and wild chicory are all mixed together in carefree profusion.

It's an uncultivated mess.

But it's green. And with the sheep to help out, it can be kept reasonably short during the brief season when things feels like growing.

No one even talks about getting rid of the weeds anymore, just as no one talks about raising a lot of vegetables, fruit and maybe a few thousand pounds of homegrown meat. Each man to his own racket and devil take the sucker who tries to beat the other man at his.

It's our hunch Sir Winston Churchill isn't fooled by the honorary U.S. citizenship bestowed on him.

He knows it is not like being knighted, which is the British way of giving recognition to people currently useful and who could be more so if they had a badge of merit.

He knows it is not because he has been so well-loved that honorary U.S. Citizenship is an outpouring of affection.

Rather, it's because Congress, reflecting what is in the minds of many Americans, wanted to make a gesture of respect for one of the last of the individualists—the greatest of his time.

Winston Churchill spent a large part of his life looking down the throats of his critics and his enemies. Even in British politics, which permits a man to swim upstream if he gets a kick out of it, he was a chronic wronger.

He was headstrong and arrogant. He was over-confident of his own opinions. He was intolerant of ideas he disagreed with and people he disliked.

His tongue was sharp. He was self-indulgent. Much of the time he took what the United States would call unfair advantage of his position. He was a snob.

He was all these things—but many more.

He was one of the great personalities of his era—adventuresome as a young man, doughty as a middle-aged man, unconquerable as an old man.

In an era when mankind seemed to be a flock of sheep preyed on by a band of wolves, Winston Churchill was one of a few with the guts and integrity to inspire leadership and make the sheep want to fight back.

He was listened to because he had spoken up in times when no one welcomed unsolicited opinions that later proved to be correct.

U.S. Probes Pension Funds

By Victor Riesel

CHICAGO

Bombs bursting in air and the arsonists' red glare at times drowned out the electioneering shouts of the recent mayoralty campaign. The noise has reached into the White House and has disturbed the Kennedys.

Victor Riesel

But dramatic as is the mobs' defiance of what passes for law and order, there is a more meaningful story being told by nervous witnesses before a mighty secretive grand jury in the federal building here.

Federal agents and attorneys have discovered a network of men who have been making millions of dollars placing loans which come out of a big union's pension fund. This special probe has been concentrating on seven such loans.

The "middle men" have netted a cool million dollars in kickbacks and finder's fees on just these seven placements. This network now under investigation reaches from Chicago to New York, Washington, and into Miami.

INDICTMENTS ARE expected in 90 days — probably on charges of volation of the income tax laws. The bird dogs for the men who really have the power to place millions of dollars in loans from these workers' pension funds have attempted to conceal their receipt of the kickbacks and finder's fees. Some of the finders are tied to the toughest of the underworld.

After this probe the Justice Department is expected to open similar investigations in other cities.

Few federal law enforcement crackdowns could be more significant. Pension funds should be sacred trusts. In them is the hope of the aging worker. In them is more money than in the combined gold reserves of the NATO countries — and that includes the United States. They are so vast that the President has asked for a special report on the impact of the funds on the nation.

A few days ago the Labor Department reported the latest available figures. As of 1960 there was well over $52 billion in private welfare and pension benefit plans.

Most of these funds are meticulously administered. Billions are in the careful hands of big insurance companies. Other billions are handled scrupulously by bank But so vast is the total pension fund sum and so rapidly is it growing that it soon will be the nation's greatest cache of liquid assets. No chances should be taken.

IT IS ESTIMATED that the pension funds increase by $4.5 billion a year. This means that the pension and welfare funds now total well over $61 billion.

Industry contributes over $11 billion a year into 120,510 funds now on file in the Labor Department. Over $7 billion is paid out yearly in benefits. There just isn't any similar financial operation in this world — either side of the iron and bamboo curtains.

And it's just in its diaper stage. In 10 years these funds will top $100 billion.

What happens to all this money? Some of it is managed by joint labor-industry trustees. Some of it is administered by management.

How is it invested? There is a growing trend to placement in mortgages. Latest available figures reveal that over $15 billion is in corporate bonds. There is almost $12 billion in common stock, which has voting rights in companies. There is some $600 million in preferred stocks.

CONSIDERING the condition of my own exchequer, this is awesome. There is at least $485 million in cash.

Government bonds aren't really in the running any more. The total in this form is $2 billion. There was a trend towards the stock market until recently. But then came the shakeout last May. Now there is an eagerness for mortgages. These now total over $900 million.

About $19 billion is in the hands of the insurance companies.

So the men who handle such funds must be antiseptically clean. The vast bulk of them are. But some are not. Some fund administrators have permitted the money entrusted to them to flow into underworld operations in the mortgage field. Obviously the middleman in such an operation can make himself a bundle. But hiding it is another thing — as those before the Chicago grand jury have discovered.

That's fine. Ninety-nine per cent purity is just not enough where the working peoples' money and future are concerned.

Rich Get Riches

By William B. Dickinson

The 1963 baseball season opens Monday when President Kennedy throws out the ball at D.C. Stadium for the game between the Washington Senators and the Baltimore Orioles.

Baseball's long season ends with a World Series bang but opens in Washington with a whimper. Suspicion is that the American League keeps a franchise in the nation's capital only so the President won't have to leave town to toss out the first ball.

The lowly Senators seem devoted to giving annual confirmation to that old saw about Washington being first in war, first in peace, and last in you-know-what. That has been their position since Calvin Griffith wearied of his role as league patsy and moved his squad to Minneapolis.

In Washington, the cry of "Who's on first?" has acquired a pathetic ring of truth. The Nats acquired a promising first baseman named Rogelio Alverez in a winter trade, but Rogelio can't get Fidel Castro's permission to leave Cuba.

Even baseball's new strike zone can't change the Las Vegas odds that favor the New York Yankees to capture their fourth straight American League pennant. Only Cleveland (1954) and Chicago (1959) have interrupted the Yankee pennant string that begun in 1940.

The National League shows a better balance, with five different pennant winners in a row. That is one reason why the NL teams outdrew those of the American League in attendance last year—11,360,377 to 10,015,056.

Professional football and basketball hold draft sessions on all available talent, with the bottom teams getting first pick. Baseball perpetuates dynasties. Even the bonus system for signing promising players favors affluent teams.

Television has made the rich guys richer. Broadcasting Magazine estimates that the 20 major league teams will split a $13.1 million broadcasting pie in 1963—up $325,000 from last year. The loot is unevenly spread, with the Yankees leading the American League with $1,200,000 for their rights and the Senators at the bottom with a mere $300,000.

The figures do not include $2,225,000 paid by CBS and NBC for nationally televised weekend games. A CBS-TV contract with the Yankees calls for broadcasting all weekend games at home, except the last three in September. Visiting clubs will have to be satisfied with the publicity because there is no arrangement to share these proceeds.

CBS told Broadcasting that Yankee games have consistently given the network a high rating, but asserted that when the neglected teams become top attractions, they will be considered by CBS-TV, too.

All teams start with equal records in the 162-game regular schedule, though not with equal expectations.

Early pilgrims in Asia may have "invented" felt. Using sheep's wool to line their hide shoes, pilgrims on long treks created enough pressure in the shoe to cause the fibers to interlock and become felt.

Image Of Weakness

By David Lawrence

U.S. Stand On Cuba Seen Appeasement

Thousands of Soviet troops are apparently going to remain in Cuba indefinitely, and the U.S. government evidently isn't going to do anything about it but write notes. While the number of "withdrawals" is announced, no official information is forthcoming as to the number of replacements. All the members of the Soviet army in Cuba wear civilian clothes.

David Lawrence

There seems, moreover, to be a tacit and unwritten agreement that not only will there be no invasion of Cuba by this country but that the Soviet army on the island and Castro troops will be protected by the United States against all outside attacks or invasions.

This paradox is occurring while tens of millions of dollars are spent annually to create abroad an "image" of the United States that will command respect and support as against Communist imperialism.

Billions are about to be spent, also, in Latin America by our government in the battle against Communism. Psychological warfare today is almost as important, if not more so, than diplomacy used to be.

But what kind of "image" is the United States creating in Latin America? And who is creating that "image?" It is not the official information agency, with its managed broadcasts, but the White House and State Department, which can by their acts and pronouncements produce unfavorable impressions on the peoples of other countries.

THE PRESIDENT has directed that the Cuban exiles be prevented from liberating their fellow citizens by any acts initiated inside this country. This is a role of "neutralism" in the Western Hemisphere in place of the Monroe Doctrine. The explanation given by President Kennedy is that otherwise there might possibly be serious complications for the United States in Europe.

This view, however, has already been interpreted in Latin America as a policy of timidity and fear. It is regarded as an abandonment of Cuba to Castro — as a means of strengthening him.

The administration here may protest that this is farthest from its thoughts, but the policy may have that effect just the same.

The people of Latin America know the difference between resoluteness and irresoluteness.

If it is a violation of the "neutrality" laws of the United States, for instance, to allow expenditions to take the big risks that exile Cubans wish to take to carry on forays along the coast of Cuba, then, it is asked, why does the U.S. government keep on making "unneutral" statements that tell those same Cuban exiles to look forward to resolution as a means of liberation?

Such declarations were repeated several times by the administration in recent months. This had a profound effect on the anti-Castro Cubans.

They came to believe that the U.S. government is behind them. But what do they see now? The Washington administration not only orders the Cubans seized if they try to launch any military raids from this country, but it has persuaded the British government also to seize raiders.

Will the Latin-American governments now feel morally bound to adopt the same course that Washington has urged on Great Britain? Will the Latin-American governments be requested by the United States to prevent the use of their territory as a base of operations for the Cuban exiles?

THE PSYCHOLOGICAL effect of the latest turn in the Kennedy-Rusk policies can only be damaging and discouraging to the people inside Latin America who have no illusions about the problem of Communist infiltration or Castro's deliberate attempts to subvert many countries in this hemisphere in aid of Communist objectives.

While the raids launched against Cuba would themselves be mere pinpricks or 'ineffective," as President Kennedy sees it, it is out of such valiant and sacrificial expeditions that the spirit of revoluiton is stimulated and the moral of the insurgents is heightened where a dictatorship is in power.

The "image" of weakness which the U.S. government is creating for itself abroad with respect to Cuba is in large part due to the openly but vaguely expressed fear of "international complications." This seems to accompany almost every move of American foreign policy nowadays where Cuba is concerned.

The failure of the Soviet government to withdraw all its troops from Cuba, after five months of note-writing between Moscow and Washington, is being treated here with faint words of remonstrance.

The fact that a European power has violated the Monroe Doctrine and maintains any troops or weapons on Cuban soil has been dealt with gently by the Washington government.

To those who talk constantly of "escalation" and the dangers of nuclear war, all this may seem expedient. But it is precisely the kind of appeasement that has led to war in the past.

Indeed, the administration's policy is not only presenting in Latin America an "image" of fear of Castro and the Soviets on the part of the United States, but it could have the dangerous effect of making the people of Western Europe and the captive peoples of Eastern Europe also believe that when the chips are down the United States will not pursue firm policies against Soviet aggression anywhere.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Mrs. Mabel Workman was elected president of the Newell Child Health Study Club and Mrs. William Jones vice president.

City Treasurer George B. Boice announced his candidacy for renomination at the Republican primaries in August.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The Washington School basketball team was presented the annual trophy for the city grade school basketball championship by H. D. Rist, president of the Grade School Athletic Association.

Representing the Ceramic City Rifle Club, George Pullins, Ralph Green and John Gallimore, explained the value of a rifle range at the Casting Club's course.

TEN YEARS AGO — William Glover was installed commander of the Chester Veterans of Foreign Wars and Harry Wilson vice commander.

Mose Adams, George Knox and Paul Seevers were enrolled as members of American Legion Post 115 of Newell.

Plane Flies Itself

LONDON — New push button equipment developed in Britain makes it possible for an aircraft to fly itself to its destination, with no navigator aboard and the pilot himself flying "hands off" the controls.

The system is being produced by the Decca Navigator Co. whose "pictorial presentation" system of navigation is already widely used.

Under the newly developed system, an aircraft accepts from the ground information on its current position.

The map reference of the destination is fed into a small computer in the aircraft, which then works out the necessary course to reach that destination from the aircraft's existing position, and feeds that course into the automatic pilot, which in turn flies the aircraft along it.

The captain of the aircraft has a moving chart in front of him which continually pictorially shows him where he is, while a ground station can keep a similar check on the aircraft's position.

If desired, map references of destinations can be built in to a special switch in the aircraft's cockpit in advance, so that merely by turning the switch in flight the pilot knows that automatically his aircraft will be flown towards the destination of his choice.

The system is part of the "harco" I hyperbolic area coverage — method of aerial navigation being submitted to the International Eurocontrol Organization as a possible standard navigations system for the future in Western Europe.

A high accuracy is claimed for the device, and it is thought that it could greatly facilitate tighter air traffic control in the future in increasingly congested air space.

Small Decline Shown In Sales Tax On Cars

State taxes collected on the sale of new autos declined slightly in Columbiana County in the week ending March 30, compared with the same week of 1962, State Treasurer John D. Herbert said in a report issued today at Columbus.

The sales taxes hit $13,017, down $996 from the $14,013 shown in the same week last year. Since the start of the current fiscal year July 1, the taxes total $436,979, up $42,479 from the $394,500 shown at the same time in the preceding fiscal year.

County sales taxes from other sources totaled $8,273 in the week ending March 30, down $23,598 from the $31,871 shown in the same week of last year. They stand at $938,680 for the fiscal year to date, up $19,571 from the $919,109 shown at the same time in the preceding fiscal year.

Wetzel, Sargus Votes Listed On 4 Measures

State Rep. Clarence Wetzel and State Sen. Edmund Sargus split votes on two measures each considered in the Ohio House and Senate this week.

Wetzel of Lisbon voted in favor of a bill which would shift the Bureau of Criminal Investigation from the Department of Mental Hygiene and Corrections to the attorney general's office, and which was approved 86-41.

He voted against a bill which would require a prosecutor to make a confession or other statements available to a defendant or defense counsel. This measure failed 56-68.

Sargus of St. Clairsville voted against a bill to revise the workmen's compensation law, which passed 19-12, and for a bill which would ban beer drinking in cars, which passed 23-8.

Dinsio Still In Jail, Unable To Post Bond

LISBON — Amil Dinsio, 26, of Poland remains confined to the Columbiana County Jail unable to raise $25,000 bond for carrying a concealed weapon and possession of burglary tools and for extradition to Weirton for robbery.

Daniel Marshall, 33, and Harold Dailey, 32, both of Youngstown and charged with the same offenses were released Thursday when the United Bonding Co. agent, Elmer C. Schumacher of the Canton Office, put up $5,000 for each.

Court Thursday reduced Dinsio's bond from $50,000.

Hays Offers Way To Improve U.S., Canada Relation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Relations between Canada and the United States seem to be deteriorating and an exchange of non-voting delegates might foster better understanding, Rep. Wayne Hays, D-Ohio, suggests.

Hays proposed in a resolution Thursday that such delegates should have the right to take part in debates in Congress and the Canadian Parliament. Hays' resolution would ask the President to undertake a study and make recommendations to Congress on the idea of exchanging delegates.

There is no precedent for such an exchange, but "it might be one way of at least making both countries more aware of each other," Hays said.

Pole Catches Afire

LISBON — Firemen were called when an Ohio Edison Co. pole caught fire Thursday at 12:45 p. m. on N. Market St. but avoided use of water because an electric short had started the blaze. Utility linemen found a kite snagged in the wires had caused the short. The pole was charred.

Jim Volenweider, rookie fullback with the San Francisco 49ers last season, is in the Army at Ford Ord, Calif.

Widow Wins In Suit Against Rep. Powell

NEW YORK (AP)—A jury has made a libel award of $211,500 to a Harlem widow against Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr. for calling her "a bag woman (graft collector) for the Police Department."

"The king is dead," the plaintiff, Esther James, 66, exclaimed as the verdict was read.

"Adam Clayton Powell is dead," the Negro domestic cried. "Now he will just have to keep his mouth shut. He's dead in Harlem."

Mrs. James, who had sued Powell for $1 million, said she will donate part of her award to charity.

Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

County Bee Inspector Resigns, Cites Health

LISBON — Citing ill health, William Marty of East Palestine submitted his resignation Thursday to county commissioners as county bee inspector, a post which he had held for more than 12 years.

No appointment was made for the vacancy immediately. The job pays $10 daily, up to a maximum of $1,200 a year.

Commissioners awarded a contract to the Parker Chevrolet Co. for a new 1963 Chevrolet half-ton truck for use of the assistant county dog warden. Parker offered the truck for $900, with the trade-in of a 1960 Chevrolet truck. Six other bids were submitted.

Commissioners authorized payment of $18.50 to the city of East Liverpool for 37 dogs destroyed in March. The next regular meeting is Monday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

38 Attend Ruritans' District Conference

Thirty - eight attended the district Ruritan conference held Wednesday night at the Oak Ridge Presbyterian Church near Wellsville.

Each of the 12 clubs in the district was represented. The Southern Ruritan Club served as host.

Frank Henderson of Winona, lieutenant governor, presided. A discussion was held on circulating various ideas among the clubs. Lunch was served.

Rotary Elects At Midland

Raymond Stowitzky, guidance counselor at Midland High School, was elected president of the Midland Rotary Club at its meeting Thursday night at the New Riviera Restaurant.

Stowitzky, who will assume his duties in July, succeeds Salvatore Glorioso.

Other officers named by the Board of Directors were William A. Walters, vice president; Frank Meredith, secretary, and Dr. Frank Benedict, treasurer. Dr. Benedict was returned for a new term.

The new officers will be installed at "Gavel Night" ceremonies at the meeting June 27.

Ray Bird of the Crucible Steel Co. accounting department spoke on computers after which the club visited the Midland Works office to see a demonstration and hear how the machines operate. Charles Smith was program chairman.

Small Decline Shown In Sales Tax On Cars

State taxes collected on the sale of new autos declined slightly in Columbiana County in the week ending March 30, compared with the same week of 1962, State Treasurer John D. Herbert said in a report issued today at Columbus.

The sales taxes hit $13,017, down $996 from the $14,013 shown in the same week last year. Since the start of the current fiscal year July 1, the taxes total $436,979, up $42,479 from the $394,500 shown at the same time in the preceding fiscal year.

County sales taxes from other sources totaled $8,273 in the week ending March 30, down $23,598 from the $31,871 shown in the same week of last year. They stand at $938,680 for the fiscal year to date, up $19,571 from the $919,109 shown at the same time in the preceding fiscal year.

Wetzel, Sargus Votes Listed On 4 Measures

State Rep. Clarence Wetzel and State Sen. Edmund Sargus split votes on two measures each considered in the Ohio House and Senate this week.

Wetzel of Lisbon voted in favor of a bill which would shift the Bureau of Criminal Investigation from the Department of Mental Hygiene and Corrections to the attorney general's office, and which was approved 86-41.

He voted against a bill which would require a prosecutor to make a confession or other statements available to a defendant or defense counsel. This measure failed 56-68.

Sargus of St. Clairsville voted against a bill to revise the workmen's compensation law, which passed 19-12, and for a bill which would ban beer drinking in cars, which passed 23-8.

Dinsio Still In Jail, Unable To Post Bond

LISBON — Amil Dinsio, 26, of Poland remains confined to the Columbiana County Jail unable to raise $25,000 bond for carrying a concealed weapon and possession of burglary tools and for extradition to Weirton for robbery.

Daniel Marshall, 33, and Harold Dailey, 32, both of Youngstown and charged with the same offenses were released Thursday when the United Bonding Co. agent, Elmer C. Schumacher of the Canton Office, put up $5,000 for each.

Court Thursday reduced Dinsio's bond from $50,000.

Hays Offers Way To Improve U.S., Canada Relation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Relations between Canada and the United States seem to be deteriorating and an exchange of non-voting delegates might foster better understanding, Rep. Wayne Hays, D-Ohio, suggests.

Hays proposed in a resolution Thursday that such delegates should have the right to take part in debates in Congress and the Canadian Parliament. Hays' resolution would ask the President to undertake a study and make recommendations to Congress on the idea of exchanging delegates.

There is no precedent for such an exchange, but "it might be one way of at least making both countries more aware of each other," Hays said.

Pole Catches Afire

LISBON — Firemen were called when an Ohio Edison Co. pole caught fire Thursday at 12:45 p. m. on N. Market St. but avoided use of water because an electric short had started the blaze. Utility linemen found a kite snagged in the wires had caused the short. The pole was charred.

Jim Volenweider, rookie fullback with the San Francisco 49ers last season, is in the Army at Ford Ord, Calif.

Widow Wins In Suit Against Rep. Powell

NEW YORK (AP)—A jury has made a libel award of $211,500 to a Harlem widow against Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr. for calling her "a bag woman (graft collector) for the Police Department."

"The king is dead," the plaintiff, Esther James, 66, exclaimed as the verdict was read.

"Adam Clayton Powell is dead," the Negro domestic cried. "Now he will just have to keep his mouth shut. He's dead in Harlem."

Mrs. James, who had sued Powell for $1 million, said she will donate part of her award to charity.

GOP Club Plans Opening Of Headquarters In City

Plans to aid in the opening of a Republican headquarters here and for a joint meeting May 1 at which a state official will speak were made at a meeting of the East Liverpool Area Men's Republican Club Wednesday night at the Potters Savings & Loan Co. annex.

About 50 attended the meeting at which it was agreed to aid in expenses for opening a headquarters on the second floor of the former Dollar Bank building at Washington and 5th Sts., arranged by the Women's Republican Club.

Plans call for the party office to be opened later this month and to continue through the November election.

It was announced a joint meeting will be held with the women's club May 1 at the Potters Savings annex at which a state official will be present. Atty. William Saxbe has been asked to aid in obtaining a speaker.

Discussion was held on the increased funds available for Columbiana County operations, and a member of the county commissioners will be asked to attend the May 1 meeting to explain for what the money will be used.

Atty. John McDonald, former city solicitor, spoke on the history of the Republican party, and Harold Allison screened a film on "America at Work," depicting scenes in local potteries.

Charles Boso, president, was in charge. Lawrence Sixt, treasurer, reported $194 in the treasury. David Sakol, membership chairman, announced the club now has 200 members.

Robert Bell of Steubenville, 18th District committeeman, spoke on plans and prospects for the November campaign. The flag salute was led by Harold Taylor, and prayer was given by Sheriff William Leasure, chaplain.

Lunch was served.

Mrs. Angie Frank Elected Secretaries' Chapter Head

Mrs. Angie Frank, secretary and bookkeeper at WOHI, was elected president of the East Liverpool Area Chapter of the National Secretaries Association at the meeting Tuesday night at the Potters Savings & Loan Co. annex.

Other officers named were Mrs. Joyce Lucas, vice president; Mrs. June Roberts, recording secretary; Mrs. Ruth Pearson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Evelyn Hartman, treasurer, and Mrs. Charlotte Cole, director-at-large.

The nominating committee was comprised of Mrs. Faye Wright, Mrs. Angie DeSarro and Miss Ruth Ann Coleman.

Miss Susan Graff, president, presided for business. Mrs. Pearson gave prayer. Reports were heard from Mrs. Lucas, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Pearson, recording secretary, and Mrs. Ruby Coleman, treasurer.

A proposal to change the meeting night was shelved. A letter of thanks was read from Miss Luella Thompson for aiding the Mental Health Clinic fund drive.

Mrs. Roberts, parliamentarian, spoke on the rules and bylaws. The group decided that if the organization dissolves, all monies will be turned in to the National Home Trust Fund.

Mrs. Wright read a letter from the Chamber of Commerce asking for co-operation in the spring cleanup campaign.

Mrs. Lucas and Mrs. Hartman were named delegates to the annual meeting of the Ohio Division May 24-26 at Dayton. The president-elect will automatically be representative to the national convention July 17-20 at Denver.

Mrs. Frank, program chairman, reported on further plans for the executives' wives dinner April 24 at the Country Club when the group will observe "National Secretaries Week." Any secretary in the area is invited.

Reservations must be in with Mrs. Frank by Wednesday.

Light refreshments were served by Mrs. Coleman at a table decorated in an Easter theme. Mrs. Roberts won a prize.

A dinner meeting will be held April 24 at the Country Club.

Key Club's Work Related In Talks Before Kiwanis

Future projects of the East Liverpool High School Key Club and relationship with the Kiwanis Club were discussed by Key Club leaders at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

Tom Chema, president - elect, outlined future activities and projects of the Key Club, including a new concession stand at Patterson Field with the aid of other organizations and a "Get Out The Vote" drive.

Chema is a candidate for international trustee at the Key Club convention today and Saturday at Columbus.

Robert Gilmore, Key Club district governor, spoke on Key Club and Kiwanis Club relationships and conducted a question - and-answer session.

Social Security Earning Report Due By April 15

In addition to being the deadline for filing income tax statements, April 15 also is the last day for Social Security beneficiaries to provide a report on earnings during 1962 and an estimate of income in 1963, district residents were reminded today by the Social Security Administration.

If an individual received Social Security payments in a single month during 1962 — except for disability — the law applies, the administration said.

The report is required of persons who were under 72 last year and whose total earnings from employment and self - employment amounted to more than $1,200.

Failure to file the report can cause the beneficiary to lose extra Social Security benefits, the agency warned.

Report forms and assistance are available at district Social Security offices.

Driver, 18, Cited In 3-Way Mishap

An 18-year-old motorist was cited on a charge of driving left of center after his auto hit two parked cars Thursday at 10:18 p.m. on W. 3rd St. at Jefferson St., police reported.

A 1955 sedan driven by James R. Lang of Highland Colony hit a parked 1960 station wagon owned by Dan R. Fisher, 310 3rd St., and a 1957 sedan owned by Joseph I. Sarbin, 307 W. 3rd St., officers said.

Officers said the youth reported he lost control of his car as he drove east on W. 3rd St. The mishap damaged the left front of Lang's car and caused extensive damage to the left side of Fisher's vehicle and the left front of Sarbin's car, police said.

Pleading guilty today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, Lang was fined $10 and costs, but the fine was suspended on payment of the $7.50 costs.

Post At Salineville Receives Suspension

SALINEVILLE — A 70-day suspension of the liquor permit of American Legion Post 442 has been ordered by the Ohio Department of Liquor Control, starting next Thursday, as a result of a 1961 pinball machine violation.

The Board of Liquor Control ordered the suspension after the post was charged with possession of a device used in giving things of value — free games. The violation occurred June 16, 1961.

East End Listed First

Street Sweeper To Open Scheduled Work Monday

Regularly - scheduled use of the city's new street sweeper will begin Monday in East End, Safety-Service Director Robert Owen announced today.

It marks inauguration of a new schedule under which virtually all paved streets in the city will be swept at least twice a month, the director pointed out.

The schedule will be announced regularly in advance and motorists will be asked to keep their cars off streets listed for sweeping so that the pavement can be cleaned properly, Owen pointed out.

The sweeper is scheduled to work Monday and Tuesday from 7 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. on: Pennsylvania Ave., Michigan Ave., Harvey Ave., Elizabeth St., Globe St., Wedgewood St., Palissey St., Erie St., Harker Ave., 1st Ave., Virginia Ave., Mulberry St., St. George St., Railroad St. and Maryland Ave.

Night schedules will be followed next Wednesday and Thursday to clean downtown area streets.

The south or west sides of these streets will be swept in a schedule beginning Wednesday at 1 a. m.: 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th Sts., Monroe St., Jefferson St., Jackson St., Market St., Dresden Ave., Washington St., Broadway, Walnut St., Lincoln Ave., Pennsylvania Ave., Elizabeth St. and Harvey Ave. The north or east sides of the same streets will be cleaned in a schedule beginning Thursday at 1 a. m.

Daylight schedules will be followed for cleaning of West End and Pleasant Heights streets Friday and Saturday. They are: Webber Way, 8th St., 9th St., May St., Lisbon St., Oakwood Ave., Rubicon St., Norton St., Prospect St., Grant St., Fenton St. and Claiborne St.

In the daylight cleaning, both sides of the streets will be swept in one operation. In the nighttime operation, the sweeper will clean one side of a street the first night and the opposite side the following night.

The alternate cleaning on some streets will mean that motorists will not be required to move their autos completely out of the affected neighborhood. Instead, they merely will shift them to the side of the street not affected by that night's schedule.

Streets affected by the night schedules already have been posted with metal signs listing the nights on which parking will be banned for sweeping. Streets due daylight sweeping will not be posted.

New Boosters Club Reads First Bylaws

New bylaws were approved on first reading when the Northern High School Boosters Club of Hancock County met Thursday night in Wells High School in Newell.

Presented by Jack Watson, temporary president, the bylaws will be given the second required reading at the next meeting.

Eighteen attended and Watson was in charge. The club will serve the new high school under construction in Pughtown to consolidate upper grades of Newell, Chester and New Cumberland.

Next meeting is April 18 at 7:30 in Newell.

Mrs. Wright read a letter from the Chamber of Commerce asking for co-operation in the spring cleanup campaign.

Mrs. Lucas and Mrs. Hartman were named delegates to the annual meeting of the Ohio Division May 24-26 at Dayton. The president-elect will automatically be representative to the national convention July 17-20 at Denver.

Mrs. Frank, program chairman, reported on further plans for the executives' wives dinner April 24 at the Country Club when the group will observe "National Secretaries Week." Any secretary in the area is invited.

Reservations must be in with Mrs. Frank by Wednesday.

Light refreshments were served by Mrs. Coleman at a table decorated in an Easter theme. Mrs. Roberts won a prize.

A dinner meeting will be held April 24 at the Country Club.

Ex-Premier Dies

FITCHBURG, Mass. (AP) — Oskari Tokoi, 90, first prime minister of Finland in a coalition government formed by Social Democrats in 1917, died Thursday. He joined the staff of the Finnish newspaper "Raivaaja" in Fitchburg in 1922 and served until his retirement in 1949.

Key Club's Work Related In Talks Before Kiwanis

Future projects of the East Liverpool High School Key Club and relationship with the Kiwanis Club were discussed by Key Club leaders at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

Tom Chema, president - elect, outlined future activities and projects of the Key Club, including a new concession stand at Patterson Field with the aid of other organizations and a "Get Out The Vote" drive.

Chema is a candidate for international trustee at the Key Club convention today and Saturday at Columbus.

Robert Gilmore, Key Club district governor, spoke on Key Club and Kiwanis Club relationships and conducted a question - and-answer session.

Social Security Earning Report Due By April 15

In addition to being the deadline for filing income tax statements, April 15 also is the last day for Social Security beneficiaries to provide a report on earnings during 1962 and an estimate of income in 1963, district residents were reminded today by the Social Security Administration.

If an individual received Social Security payments in a single month during 1962 — except for disability — the law applies, the administration said.

The report is required of persons who were under 72 last year and whose total earnings from employment and self - employment amounted to more than $1,200.

Failure to file the report can cause the beneficiary to lose extra Social Security benefits, the agency warned.

Report forms and assistance are available at district Social Security offices.

Driver, 18, Cited In 3-Way Mishap

An 18-year-old motorist was cited on a charge of driving left of center after his auto hit two parked cars Thursday at 10:18 p.m. on W. 3rd St. at Jefferson St., police reported.

A 1955 sedan driven by James R. Lang of Highland Colony hit a parked 1960 station wagon owned by Dan R. Fisher, 310 3rd St., and a 1957 sedan owned by Joseph I. Sarbin, 307 W. 3rd St., officers said.

Officers said the youth reported he lost control of his car as he drove east on W. 3rd St. The mishap damaged the left front of Lang's car and caused extensive damage to the left side of Fisher's vehicle and the left front of Sarbin's car, police said.

Pleading guilty today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, Lang was fined $10 and costs, but the fine was suspended on payment of the $7.50 costs.

Post At Salineville Receives Suspension

SALINEVILLE — A 70-day suspension of the liquor permit of American Legion Post 442 has been ordered by the Ohio Department of Liquor Control, starting next Thursday, as a result of a 1961 pinball machine violation.

The Board of Liquor Control ordered the suspension after the post was charged with possession of a device used in giving things of value — free games. The violation occurred June 16, 1961.

Inventor Claimed

CHICAGO (AP) — Thomas L. Gatke, 83, inventor of the molded brake lining which made possible the four-wheel brake, died Thursday. Gatke, who held more than 100 patents, was president of the Gatke Corp., a company he founded more than 50 years ago.

East End Listed First

Street Sweeper To Open Scheduled Work Monday

Regularly - scheduled use of the city's new street sweeper will begin Monday in East End, Safety-Service Director Robert Owen announced today.

It marks inauguration of a new schedule under which virtually all paved streets in the city will be swept at least twice a month, the director pointed out.

The schedule will be announced regularly in advance and motorists will be asked to keep their cars off streets listed for sweeping so that the pavement can be cleaned properly, Owen pointed out.

The sweeper is scheduled to work Monday and Tuesday from 7 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. on: Pennsylvania Ave., Michigan Ave., Harvey Ave., Elizabeth St., Globe St., Wedgewood St., Palissey St., Erie St., Harker Ave., 1st Ave., Virginia Ave., Mulberry St., St. George St., Railroad St. and Maryland Ave.

Night schedules will be followed next Wednesday and Thursday to clean downtown area streets.

The south or west sides of these streets will be swept in a schedule beginning Wednesday at 1 a. m.: 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th Sts., Monroe St., Jefferson St., Jackson St., Market St., Dresden Ave., Washington St., Broadway, Walnut St., Lincoln Ave., Pennsylvania Ave., Elizabeth St. and Harvey Ave. The north or east sides of the same streets will be cleaned in a schedule beginning Thursday at 1 a. m.

Daylight schedules will be followed for cleaning of West End and Pleasant Heights streets Friday and Saturday. They are: Webber Way, 8th St., 9th St., May St., Lisbon St., Oakwood Ave., Rubicon St., Norton St., Prospect St., Grant St., Fenton St. and Claiborne St.

In the daylight cleaning, both sides of the streets will be swept in one operation. In the nighttime operation, the sweeper will clean one side of a street the first night and the opposite side the following night.

The alternate cleaning on some streets will mean that motorists will not be required to move their autos completely out of the affected neighborhood. Instead, they merely will shift them to the side of the street not affected by that night's schedule.

Streets affected by the night schedules already have been posted with metal signs listing the nights on which parking will be banned for sweeping. Streets due daylight sweeping will not be posted.

New Boosters Club Reads First Bylaws

4 Resolutions Submitted By Pottery Local

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters today listed the first four resolutions proposed for its 69th annual convention in July at Las Vegas.

All proposed by Local 320, Generalware, of East Liverpool, the proposals were published in the official union newspaper, The Potters Herald.

The propositions would:

Assure no loss in benefits such as vacation pay, Social Security and pension payments to members who take time off from their work to serve at wage conferences and on wage policy committees, standing committees, pension committees and similar groups.

Deny appointive international representatives the right to vote in conventions.

Provide that only appeals from Executive Board decisions concerning suspensions or expulsions of locals, members or officers would be required to be brought before the convention. Other decisions would be brought before the convention provided it approved by a two-thirds vote.

Allow delegates to elect committee chairmen at conventions and bar salaried officials from competing for the posts.

The IBOP said the four represent all the resolutions that have been received to date. Those related to changes or amendments to the international constitution and received by May 1 will be published in subsequent issues, the union said.

$100,000 Blaze Hits School; 24 Firemen Injured

CINCINNATI (AP) — Firemen and school officials were busy today as the result of the $100,000-plus fire at Burdett Elementary School in the Walnut Hills section.

Acting Fire Chief Bert Luganani ordered the arson squad to investigate the blaze while school officials considered offers of classroom space for the 680 pupils.

The pupils—ranging from kindergarten through sixth grade—were playing in the yard or eating lunch in the basement when the fire broke out on the third floor. None was hurt while evacuating the 68 - year - old structure, but one youngster had to be treated for smoke inhalation. She gulped the smoke while watching the fire.

Twenty - four firemen suffered injuries while fighting the five-alarm blaze that for a while threatened nearby houses.

The top three floors of the five-story brick structure were damaged by flames and the roof caved in, but school officials said the lower floors might be salvaged.

The building was dedicated in 1895 as the Walnut Hills High School. In 1931 it became a vocational high school and 10 years ago the primary grades took over.

A similar fire caused $5,000 damage to the school on March 24, 1961. Both blazes began in a third floor cloakroom, firemen said.

TST Employes Name New Shop Committee

Employes of the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. have elected a new master shop committee, the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today.

C. E. Moore is chairman and Clifford Wilson is co-chairman. Other members, by departments, are:

Gale Ankrom of Local 172, two-year term, and Perry Lamp, Local 321, one year, Department A; Clifford Wilson, Local 9, two years, and Bernice Mathers, Local 94, one year, Department B, and Clarence Moore, Local 124, two years, and Charles Micheals, Local 124, one year, Department C.

Road Project Fund Allotted At Ohioville

Ohioville Borough Council voted a $2,000 contribution to the State Highways Department Thursday night toward the cost of relocating, widening and resurfacing a section of Route 168.

The section to be improved runs from Ohioville to Route 251.

Council also approved an ordinance designating the Borough Planning Commission as the Borough Zoning Commission. Edward Ryan was reappointed as chairman.

Council authorized the commission to proceed with preliminary zoning plans.

It also adopted a resolution from the Beaver County Planning and Zoning Commission which is necessary in order for the industrial development agency to receive assistance from the state. Fifty per cent of the county's population must be enrolled before the county is eligible.

Council appointed Joseph Cataldo to a five-year term on the Water Authority succeeding Wilbur Basinger, whose term expired Monday. Daniel Borato and John Garland were nomed as alternate appointees in event Cataldo declines to serve.

Two bids to furnish slag were rejected and the road committee was asked to check to determine the type and size needed.

Mrs. Emily Carroll, borough secretary, was authorized to take applications for employment as road laborers.

Council also appealed to borough residents to clean up the areas around their homes.

An executive meeting was scheduled for April 18 at 7:30 p. m. in the Borough Building. The next regular meeting will be May 2. George Daniels Jr., president, presided.

Inspection Held For Glenmoor's Fire Equipment

Chief Leonard Congrove conducted an inspection of the equipment of 18 men when Glenmoor volunteer firemen met Thursday night in the station.

Coats, hats and boots of each were checked. Those not present are to bring the personal equipment to the next meeting.

During business conducted by Herman Heiney, firemen approved a change in insurance on department vehicles. Nationwide Insurance Co., with William Rogers as agent, was given the new contract.

Congrove and the Board of Trustees discussed the annual budget. Work will continue on the figures.

Firemen are selling candy as a fund-raising project. Jessie Densmore is chairman and patrons are to contact him or any of the firemen.

The department thanked neighboring firemen for standing by while the No. 3 truck of Glenmoor was repaired. It is back in service after the motor was replaced.

Burglary Try Halted By Cruiser's Arrival

Two men apparently attempting to break into the Star-Lite Cafe, 1307 Main St., were frightened away early this morning by an approaching police cruiser.

During routine patrol about 5 a.m., the cruiser operator spotted the two men, both wearing trench coats, attempting to force a door lock. But the would- be thieves also spotted the cruiser and fled into an alley and eluded a search, police said.

4-H News

Plans were discussed for a Mother's Day program at a meeting of the Seneca 4-H Club Tuesday evening at the Watson House at New Cumberland.

A talk on "Gardening of Vegetables" was presented by Mary Oliver, followed with a demonstration on "Car Radios" by Benny Geer. Refreshments were served.

400 Complain To County On Tax Boosts

LISBON — More than 400 formal complaints have been filed against the new tax valuations that went into effect this year, covering first - half payments on the 1962 tax year, County Auditor Kenneth Bell said today.

Wednesday is the deadline for the payment of the first installment on the taxes and it also will be the final date for filing complaints on the new values set in the reappraisal program, Bell said.

The complaints must be postmarked by April 10 — Wednesday — so persons who request forms on which to file the protests should allow time for them to be returned before the deadline, the auditor said.

As soon as all the complaints are filed, they will be checked for clerical errors. Then personal hearings on the protests will be set up at 15-minute intervals, Bell said.

The complaints will be heard by the Board of Review, which includes Bell, Treasurer Vincent C. Judge and Commissioner Walter Hunston.

The series of protests against the new tax valuations began when the tax statements were mailed out about a month ago.

Road Project Fund Allotted At Ohioville

Ohioville Borough Council voted a $2,000 contribution to the State Highways Department Thursday night toward the cost of relocating, widening and resurfacing a section of Route 168.

The section to be improved runs from Ohioville to Route 251.

Council also approved an ordinance designating the Borough Planning Commission as the Borough Zoning Commission. Edward Ryan was reappointed as chairman.

Council authorized the commission to proceed with preliminary zoning plans.

It also adopted a resolution from the Beaver County Planning and Zoning Commission which is necessary in order for the industrial development agency to receive assistance from the state. Fifty per cent of the county's population must be enrolled before the county is eligible.

Council appointed Joseph Cataldo to a five-year term on the Water Authority succeeding Wilbur Basinger, whose term expired Monday. Daniel Borato and John Garland were nomed as alternate appointees in event Cataldo declines to serve.

Two bids to furnish slag were rejected and the road committee was asked to check to determine the type and size needed.

Mrs. Emily Carroll, borough secretary, was authorized to take applications for employment as road laborers.

Council also appealed to borough residents to clean up the areas around their homes.

An executive meeting was scheduled for April 18 at 7:30 p. m. in the Borough Building. The next regular meeting will be May 2. George Daniels Jr., president, presided.

Inspection Held For Glenmoor's Fire Equipment

Chief Leonard Congrove conducted an inspection of the equipment of 18 men when Glenmoor volunteer firemen met Thursday night in the station.

Coats, hats and boots of each were checked. Those not present are to bring the personal equipment to the next meeting.

During business conducted by Herman Heiney, firemen approved a change in insurance on department vehicles. Nationwide Insurance Co., with William Rogers as agent, was given the new contract.

Congrove and the Board of Trustees discussed the annual budget. Work will continue on the figures.

Firemen are selling candy as a fund-raising project. Jessie Densmore is chairman and patrons are to contact him or any of the firemen.

The department thanked neighboring firemen for standing by while the No. 3 truck of Glenmoor was repaired. It is back in service after the motor was replaced.

Burglary Try Halted By Cruiser's Arrival

Two men apparently attempting to break into the Star-Lite Cafe, 1307 Main St., were frightened away early this morning by an approaching police cruiser.

During routine patrol about 5 a.m., the cruiser operator spotted the two men, both wearing trench coats, attempting to force a door lock. But the would- be thieves also spotted the cruiser and fled into an alley and eluded a search, police said.

4-H News

Plans were discussed for a Mother's Day program at a meeting of the Seneca 4-H Club Tuesday evening at the Watson House at New Cumberland.

The meeting opened with the 4-H pledge, followed with the singing of "West Virginia Boys and Girls," led by Karen Childers. Three other numbers were led by Bonnie Geer, who also gave a talk on "Preparing a Garment for Exhibit."

A talk on "Gardening of Vegetables" was presented by Mary Oliver, followed with a demonstration on "Car Radios" by Benny Geer. Refreshments were served.

400 Complain To County On Tax Boosts

LISBON — More than 400 formal complaints have been filed against the new tax valuations that went into effect this year, covering first - half payments on the 1962 tax year, County Auditor Kenneth Bell said today.

Wednesday is the deadline for the payment of the first installment on the taxes and it also will be the final date for filing complaints on the new values set in the reappraisal program, Bell said.

The complaints must be postmarked by April 10 — Wednesday — so persons who request forms on which to file the protests should allow time for them to be returned before the deadline, the auditor said.

As soon as all the complaints are filed, they will be checked for clerical errors. Then personal hearings on the protests will be set up at 15-minute intervals, Bell said.

The complaints will be heard by the Board of Review, which includes Bell, Treasurer Vincent C. Judge and Commissioner Walter Hunston.

The series of protests against the new tax valuations began when the tax statements were mailed out about a month ago.

Activity Gives Springtime Feeling

We were meant to have more activity. It's muscle contraction that promotes proper functioning of the body, burns calories, restores vigor and gives that younger than springtime feeling!

Ida Jean Kain

How does one get over the initial inertia to exercise? Start exercise and you'll feel like swinging into action. Turn on some lively music, the kind that lifts your feet. Who could slump in a lump "while a hundred and ten cornets play the air!"

The old army way of exercising to count is deadly dull. Think of calisthenics as shape-ups. Once you get the idea that just around the bend lies a shapely figure... that makes it easy to stretch, bend and take a turn at shape-ups.

STRETCH YOUR imagination and use word pictures. The idea of being suddenly slim can electrify you into spirited action. It's almost magic.

Isometric contraction exercises which pit one muscle group against the other provide a fast way to streamline. The gist of it is to hold the muscle contraction to a slow count of six. A physiotherapist would have you count, one — Mississippi — two Mississippi, etc. to six.

We'll do it with slimming words. Start with an easy stretch ...hit a rhythm, "stretching makes for a willowy waist." Hold the stretch slim, lissome, lithe, s-t-r-e-a-m-l-i-n-e-r-s. This gives! point to stretching.

Then, with no effort at all you find yourself bending sidewards, chanting "rhythm bending is fun and freeing." As you picture smooth slimness, all the movements flow...that's the beauty of bending.

It's fascinating to exercise to words, for stretching the imagination lifts your spirits. Hearts desire is of the spirit. Swing arms forward and upwards, free and easy while rising on toes and chanting "Stretching lifts the figure out of the dumps...l-i-f-t." You'll feel taller at the end of the sentence. Repeat until you feel buoyant and pleasantly stretched.

A bend follows naturally. Standing with feet apart, bend gracefully sidewards, chanting "silken slim and supple..." As you bend to the right, let your right hand slide down the thighline...aiming toward the knee.

Never mind if you can't reach the knee. Think "lithe and limber" — don't strain. Then bend to the left, this time letting the left hand slide down toward the left knee..."Young and supple... lissome, lithe, lovely."

THERE YOU are, taking shape-ups and it's fun.

You'll feel so good at the finish, no use wasting that fillip of fine feeling ... how about a walk? A mile is easy when spring is bursting out all over.

Send long stamped, self addressed envelope for "For a Slimmer Midriff." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Adopted Child Has Trouble In School

You and I consider it wonderful when parents adopt one or more children. I don't know of reliable studies which show whether normal parents or adoptive parents have fewer problems bringing up the children. My guess is that they are about equally successful. On the side of the adoptive parents is their strong desire to have these children. They do have strong urges to supply the child with abundant love. Against them are their doubts and fears that they might not prove successful parents — often amplified by what other adults may say about their ways with the adopted children.

Dr. Garry Meyers

THOUGH I HEAR from a good many adoptive parents telling of their happy successes, an occasional one writes of worries and problems with the adopted child or children.

For example, a mother writes from New Mexico about an adopted son, seven, who has an adopted sister, three and a half.

She thinks her main problem is that the boy is stubborn at home and at school, not earning passing grades.

"Tonight we were called to school and shown some of Tommy's work; it was terrible," she tells me. "The teacher says he just will do nothing most days, but some days he will come to school and be happy.

"One day he may be the first one done, even get 100 in several papers. Then maybe the next day he will do nothing.

"She has 45 pupils and cannot give him extra time and attention. At home he has all sorts of games and educational toys.

—:—

"DO YOU THINK it will harm Tommy if he is spanked for his poor grades? If you think it will do no great harm, I might be able to relax. I would like to believe it would make him straighten up and do his work, but I don't know."

My reply in part:

I'm sure you parents are trying to do your best for that boy. No doubt you love his little sister very much, too. But just because she is so good and cooperative she naturally gets much more approval than Tommy.

This must cause Tommy to feel very jealous and have ugly feelings in his heart toward her. It could be the chief source of his trouble.

Play up that boy's good traits and successes. Do try to find ways to build up Tommy and make him feel more worthwile. Try to get your relatives and friends to help you.

Perhaps Dad can do most, making things with the boy, going places with him, having fun with him. When either of you helps him with his lessons, try to be very calm and patient.

I HOPE NOBODY paddles him for his low grades. If he fails to be at a certain place at a regular time for his lessons, he might well be punished for that. Also, when he has a few chores to do, see that he does them promptly and on time.

If he must be punished, require him to sit unamused for half an hour where you can see him.

My bulletins, "Stubbornness" and "Helping Child With Lessons at Home", may be secured by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Highway Patrol Cites Patrolman For Top Award

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — For saving the lives of four injured persons trapped in an overturned flaming car, patrolman George C. Fisher of the Xenia post has been awarded the Ohio Highway Patrol's highest award.

The 39-year-old Cincinnati native received the O. W. Merrell Award —a certificate and engraved target pistol—at ceremonies Thursday at patrol headquarters here. Merrell, highway director when the patrol was founded in 1933, made the presentation.

Fisher, 39, and a patrolman since 1949, made his bid for fame on Ohio 42 last Sept. 16. While on routine patrol he came upon a car which had struck a culvert, overturned and burst into flame. He extinguished the blaze, helped bystanders right the car, and then removed four injured passengers. A fifth was killed.

After joining the patrol, Fisher had served at Portsmouth, Chillicothe, Dayton, Georgetown and Cincinnati before being assigned to Xenia in June 1959.

Rural Group To Tour

LISBON —The Elkrun Township Home Demonstration Group will tour the Salem News plant and the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. exchange at Salem Wednesday, beginning at 10 a.m. at the phone office, Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture, announced.

Sens. Lausche, Young Differ On Transit Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio Democratic Sens. Stephen M. Young and Frank J. Lausche stood on opposite sides Thursday as the Senate passed the mass transit bill 52-41. Young voted for the bill and Lausche against.

Lausche had fought the administration bill all through its path through Senate committee hearings, and he had introduced a substitute bill of his own, which was rejected.

Cadet Trains In Jet

EAST PALESTINE—Naval Aviation Cadet Errol L. Quinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Quinn, 831 W. Main St., has completed a basic jet training course at Forrest Sherman Field at Pensacola, Fla., and has been transferred to Corpus Christi, Tex., for advanced training.

Flag Ceremony Planned By Civil War Roundtable

An American flag ceremony will be held at a meeting of the Tri-State Civil War Roundtable Tuesday night at 7:30 at the Potters Savings & Loan Co. annex when American Legion Post 374 will present a flag to the reactivated 104th Ohio Volunteer Regiment.

The Americanism committee of the Legion post will present the flag to the area Civil War unit headed by Capt. Joseph Robbins of Globe St.

Robbins said the public along with veterans' groups, Boy Scouts and other patriotic organizations have been invited.

The 104th will be represented by some 15 members in their blue uniforms.

Lt. Tom Gaultier of Wellsville and his Co. 1, field music unit of the 104th, will play Civil War marches and songs with their fifes and drums.

A Civil War movie will also be screened. Robbins said arrangements are being made to display two authentic Civil War flags.

Farm Groups To Join In Meeting At Lisbon

LISBON — A combined meeting for farm and home development and farm and home management groups will be held Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. in the county extension office, according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

Ken Battles, agricultural engineer at Ohio State University, will discuss farm and home building arrangements and remodeling.

Refreshments will be served.

Coal Bids Sought

EAST PALESTINE — Bids will be opened April 24 by the Board of Control for the supply of coal for the city electric plant and other city buildings for a year starting May 1. Tony Ferris is the present contract holder at $3.85 a ton delivered.

Workhouse Guard's Dismissal Is Upheld

CINCINNATI (AP)—Sgt. Robert Schuck's dismissal as a workhouse guard has been upheld by the Civil Service Commission after a hearing to determine whether he abused a prisoner.

Charles Haynes, 42, said he was kicked and beaten when he scratched his head with a knife during a kitchen work detail. Schuck said he shoved and shook the prisoner who had made threatening gestures, but other testimony showed he pushed Haynes hard enough to make him fall down.

Named VA Director

WASHINGTON (AP) — Reuben Cohen, 54, director of the Veterans Hospital in Cleveland, has been appointed director of the Veterans Administration Center at Dublin, Ga. His successor has not been announced.

Injunction Testimony Scheduled To Resume

CINCINNATI (AP)— Testimony in an injunction hearing that involves the Production Plating Co. of Lebanon was scheduled to resume today in U.S. District Court.

The National Labor Relations Board cited production plating for unfair labor practices in a dispute with the United Steelworkers Union last week and asked Judge John W. Peck for an injunction.

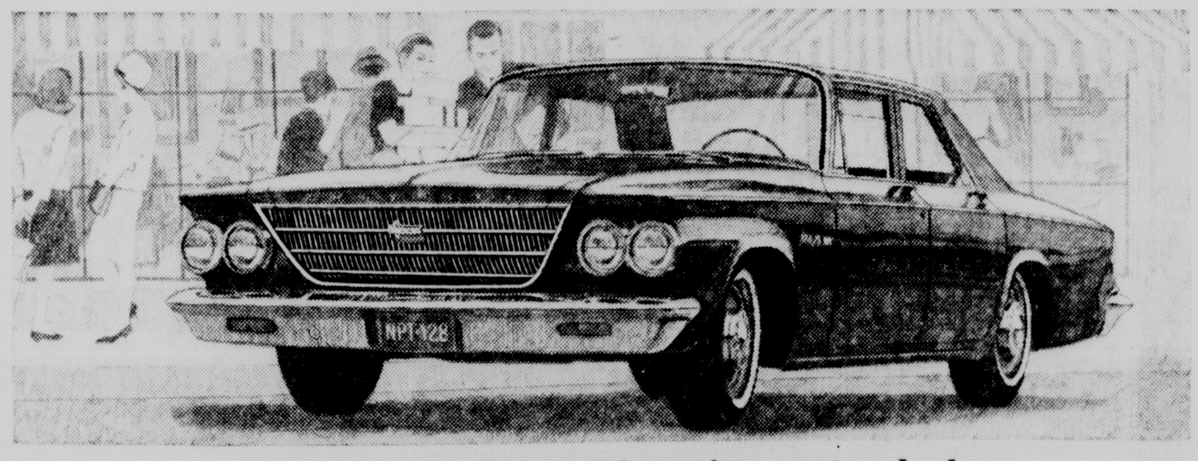
CHRYSLER / AMERICA'S NEWEST PACE-SETTERS

Sports spectacular—with a 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty†

When the Chrysler 300 sets out to do a performance job, it does it with flying colors. It's been chosen (with complete justification) to pace the field at the famed Indianapolis "500" on May 30th.
It's already known as the No. 1 American rally car. Successes include top awards in the Continental Divide, Daniel Boone and Abominable Snow rallies.
With a 300—crisp, custom styling, bucket seat luxury plus the power and handling of a true performance car are all yours to enjoy.
And, there's the most surprising extra of all—your Chrysler dealer's 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty.
Little wonder Chrysler's setting the hot pace wherever performance cars are being talked about.



Value spectacular—with a crisp, custom look

When Chrysler sets out to pack a full-size Newport with value, others take a back seat. Here's value that surprises many who figure the crisp, custom beauty of Chrysler ought to be priced much higher.
Consider the solid way this beauty is built. The complete way it's powered and equipped with a Firebolt V-8 that performs on regular. Torsion-bar suspension that levels the roughest roads. Expensive decorator fabrics. Six-way adjustable seats. Thick, door-to-door carpeting. Then there's America's longest and best new-car warranty, 5 years or 50,000 miles.
Chrysler Newport—only $2964.* See your dealer today.

*Manufacturer's suggested retail price of Newport 4-door sedan, exclusive of state and local taxes, if any, and destination charges. White wall tires extra.

†Your authorized Chrysler Dealer's Warranty against defects in material and workmanship on 1963 cars has been expanded to include parts replacement or repair, without charge for required parts or labor, for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the engine block, head and internal parts, transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints (excluding dust covers), rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings, provided the vehicle has been serviced at reasonable intervals according to the Chrysler Certified Car Care schedules.

For example, a mother writes from New Mexico about an adopted son, seven, who has an adopted sister, three and a half.

She thinks her main problem is that the boy is stubborn at home and at school, not earning passing grades.

"Tonight we were called to school and shown some of Tommy's work; it was terrible," she tells me. "The teacher says he just will do nothing most days, but some days he will come to school and be happy.

"One day he may be the first one done, even get 100 in several papers. Then maybe the next day he will do nothing.

"She has 45 pupils and cannot give him extra time and attention. At home he has all sorts of games and educational toys.

—:—

"DO YOU THINK it will harm Tommy if he is spanked for his poor grades? If you think it will do no great harm, I might be able to relax. I would like to believe it would make him straighten up and do his work, but I don't know."

My reply in part:

I'm sure you parents are trying to do your best for that boy. No doubt you love his little sister very much, too. But just because she is so good and cooperative she naturally gets much more approval than Tommy.

This must cause Tommy to feel very jealous and have ugly feelings in his heart toward her. It could be the chief source of his trouble.

Play up that boy's good traits and successes. Do try to find ways to build up Tommy and make him feel more worthwile. Try to get your relatives and friends to help you.

Perhaps Dad can do most, making things with the boy, going places with him, having fun with him. When either of you helps him with his lessons, try to be very calm and patient.

I HOPE NOBODY paddles him for his low grades. If he fails to be at a certain place at a regular time for his lessons, he might well be punished for that. Also, when he has a few chores to do, see that he does them promptly and on time.

If he must be punished, require him to sit unamused for half an hour where you can see him.

My bulletins, "Stubbornness" and "Helping Child With Lessons at Home", may be secured by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Highway Patrol Cites Patrolman For Top Award

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — For saving the lives of four injured persons trapped in an overturned flaming car, patrolman George C. Fisher of the Xenia post has been awarded the Ohio Highway Patrol's highest award.

The 39-year-old Cincinnati native received the O. W. Merrell Award —a certificate and engraved target pistol—at ceremonies Thursday at patrol headquarters here. Merrell, highway director when the patrol was founded in 1933, made the presentation.

Fisher, 39, and a patrolman since 1949, made his bid for fame on Ohio 42 last Sept. 16. While on routine patrol he came upon a car which had struck a culvert, overturned and burst into flame. He extinguished the blaze, helped bystanders right the car, and then removed four injured passengers. A fifth was killed.

After joining the patrol, Fisher had served at Portsmouth, Chillicothe, Dayton, Georgetown and Cincinnati before being assigned to Xenia in June 1959.

Rural Group To Tour

LISBON —The Elkrun Township Home Demonstration Group will tour the Salem News plant and the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. exchange at Salem Wednesday, beginning at 10 a.m. at the phone office, Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture, announced.

Sens. Lausche, Young Differ On Transit Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio Democratic Sens. Stephen M. Young and Frank J. Lausche stood on opposite sides Thursday as the Senate passed the mass transit bill 52-41. Young voted for the bill and Lausche against.

Lausche had fought the administration bill all through its path through Senate committee hearings, and he had introduced a substitute bill of his own, which was rejected.

Cadet Trains In Jet

EAST PALESTINE—Naval Aviation Cadet Errol L. Quinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Quinn, 831 W. Main St., has completed a basic jet training course at Forrest Sherman Field at Pensacola, Fla., and has been transferred to Corpus Christi, Tex., for advanced training.

Flag Ceremony Planned By Civil War Roundtable

An American flag ceremony will be held at a meeting of the Tri-State Civil War Roundtable Tuesday night at 7:30 at the Potters Savings & Loan Co. annex when American Legion Post 374 will present a flag to the reactivated 104th Ohio Volunteer Regiment.

The Americanism committee of the Legion post will present the flag to the area Civil War unit headed by Capt. Joseph Robbins of Globe St.

Robbins said the public along with veterans' groups, Boy Scouts and other patriotic organizations have been invited.

The 104th will be represented by some 15 members in their blue uniforms.

Lt. Tom Gaultier of Wellsville and his Co. 1, field music unit of the 104th, will play Civil War marches and songs with their fifes and drums.

A Civil War movie will also be screened. Robbins said arrangements are being made to display two authentic Civil War flags.

Farm Groups To Join In Meeting At Lisbon

LISBON — A combined meeting for farm and home development and farm and home management groups will be held Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. in the county extension office, according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

Ken Battles, agricultural engineer at Ohio State University, will discuss farm and home building arrangements and remodeling.

Refreshments will be served.

Coal Bids Sought

Workhouse Guard's Dismissal Is Upheld

CINCINNATI (AP)—Sgt. Robert Schuck's dismissal as a workhouse guard has been upheld by the Civil Service Commission after a hearing to determine whether he abused a prisoner.

Charles Haynes, 42, said he was kicked and beaten when he scratched his head with a knife during a kitchen work detail. Schuck said he shoved and shook the prisoner who had made threatening gestures, but other testimony showed he pushed Haynes hard enough to make him fall down.

Named VA Director

WASHINGTON (AP) — Reuben Cohen, 54, director of the Veterans Hospital in Cleveland, has been appointed director of the Veterans Administration Center at Dublin, Ga. His successor has not been announced.

Injunction Testimony Scheduled To Resume

CINCINNATI (AP)— Testimony in an injunction hearing that involves the Production Plating Co. of Lebanon was scheduled to resume today in U.S. District Court.

The National Labor Relations Board cited production plating to unfair labor practices in a dispute with the United Steelworkers Union last week and asked Judge John W. Peck for an injunction.

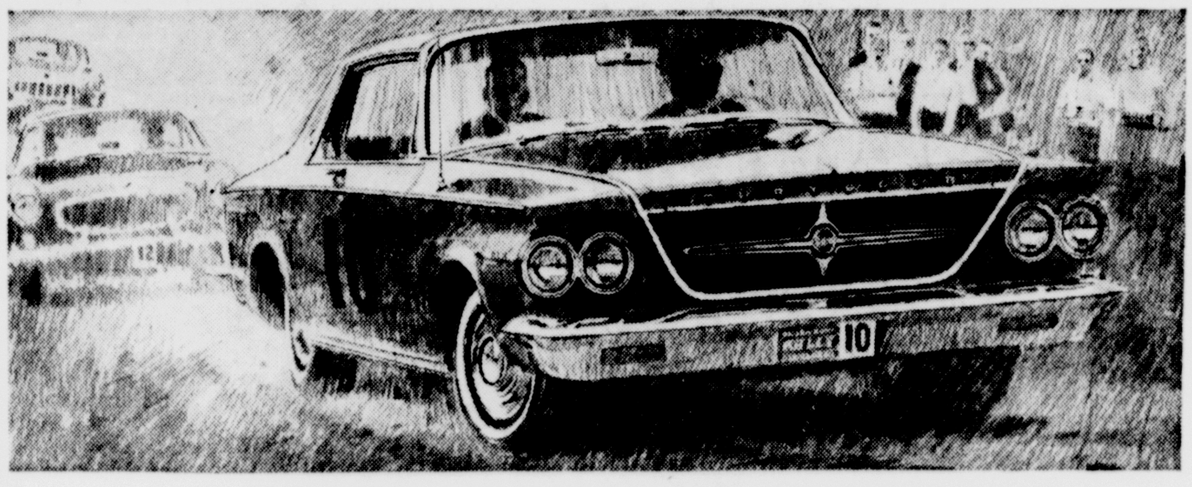
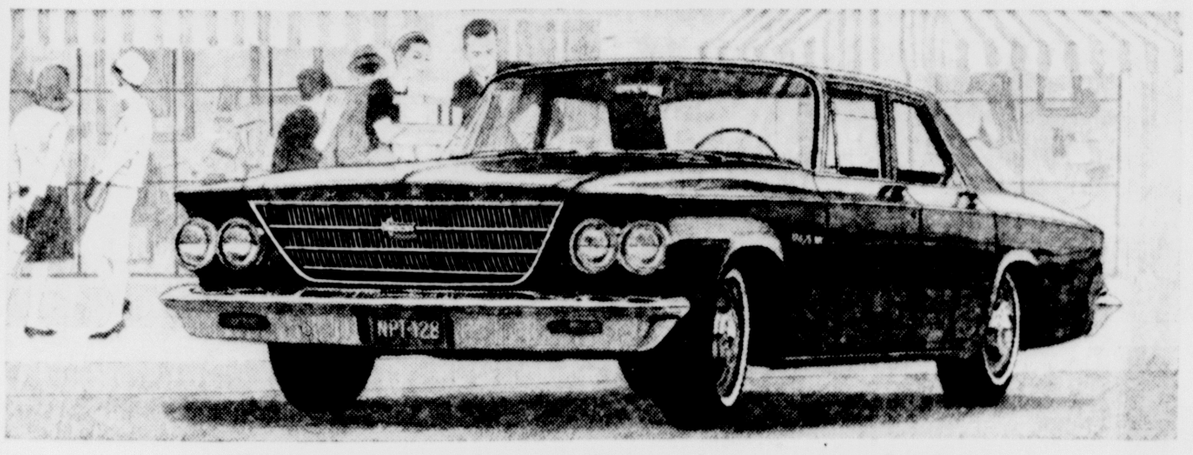
CHRYSLER / AMERICA'S NEWEST PACE-SETTERS



Sports spectacular — with a 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty†

When the Chrysler 300 sets out to do a performance job, it does it with flying colors. It's been chosen (with complete justification) to pace the field at the famed Indianapolis "500" on May 30th.
It's already known as the No. 1 American rally car. Successes include top awards in the Continental Divide, Daniel Boone and Abominable Snow rallies.
With a 300—crisp, custom styling, bucket seat luxury plus the power and handling of a true performance car are all yours to enjoy.
And, there's the most surprising extra of all—your Chrysler dealer's 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty.
Little wonder Chrysler's setting the hot pace wherever performance cars are being talked about.



Value spectacular — with a crisp, custom look

When Chrysler sets out to pack a full-size Newport with value, others take a back seat. Here's value that surprises many who figure the crisp, custom beauty of Chrysler ought to be priced much higher.
Consider the solid way this beauty is built. The complete way it's powered and equipped with a Firebolt V-8 that performs on regular. Torsion-bar suspension that levels the roughest roads. Expensive decorator fabrics. Six-way adjustable seats. Thick, door-to-door carpeting. Then there's America's longest and best new-car warranty, 5 years or 50,000 miles.
Chrysler Newport—only $2964.* See your dealer today.

*Manufacturer's suggested retail price of Newport 4-door sedan, exclusive of state and local taxes, if any, and destination charges. White wall tires extra.

†Your authorized Chrysler Dealer's Warranty against defects in material and workmanship on 1963 cars has been expanded to include parts replacement or repair, without charge for required parts or labor, for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the engine block, head and internal parts, transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints (excluding dust covers), rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings, provided the vehicle has been serviced at reasonable intervals according to the Chrysler Certified Car Care schedules.

Performance Of Wellsville Play Termed Entertaining

By HARRY STEWART

An extremely entertaining performance was presented by the Liberty Players in their production of the three-act comedy, "My Three Angels," opening night Thursday at the Liberty Theater in Wellsville.

The "three angels" turn out to be three convicts who literally steal the show and provide the many laughs in the former Broadway production.

The convicts, portrayed by Al West, Robert Birch and Harry Rose, save the day for a French family who are about to be evicted from their store and home by a cynical cousin.

Located on French Guiana, the store is operated by Felix Ducotel, played convincingly by Mike Weis. The bumbling, but honest shopkeeper, extends credit to anyone and everyone. The cousin, played by Howard Guildoo, plans to arrive at the island and take over the store.

Joyce McLaughlin plays Emilie Ducotel, who loves her husband, but is very concerned over the fact that he just isn't a good businessman.

Joe Rogers and Carol Ross provide the love interest. Miss Ross is the daughter and Rogers is a former boyfriend from France, who has been made the legal heir of the cousin.

West plays an embezzler, who decides to fix the books to make the store look good. Birch and Rose both are murderers with hearts of gold.

Edith Long adds flavor to the play by portraying a rather pompous wife of a French customs inspector.

Ed Welch serves as stage manager while George Grafton handles the lighting. Properties are in charge of Evelyn Nightingale, Rose Ann Creaturo, Shirley Leatherberry and Liz McNicol. Mary Carrol handles the costumes and the makeup artists are Jo Ann Welch, Barbara Radeka, Paula Rossi, and Sidney Young.

Dorothy Dick is prompter and Martha Wilson and Zeta Penn, who also direct the play, are in charge of the programs. Guildoo is in charge of tickets.

Barbara Radeka, Shirley Rose, Mary Lou Cunningham and Robert Andrews handle publicity.

The casting committee includes Shirley Andrews, Bob Andrews, Harry Rose, Mary Lou Cunningham and Bill Rager.

The script committee is comprised of Joyce McLaughlin, Guildoo, Sandra Michels, Ed Welch, Dorothy Dick and Zeta Penn.

The play will be presented again tonight and Saturday night. Curtain time is 8:30.

GOP Club At Lisbon Hears Wellsville Man

Allen Dalrymple of Wellsville was guest speaker for the Mid-County Republican Club meeting Thursday night at the Lisbon Village Hall. He spoke on "The Life of Our Party."

Edward Heim of Lisbon, president of the Columbiana County Republican Club, urged renewal of memberships and gave future plans for the county club.

Mrs. Delores Stockman, president of the club, presided and guests included County Commissioner and Mrs. Walter Hunston and several from East Liverpool.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Esther DeTemple, Mrs. Dorothy Kettlewell and Mrs. Thelma McClintock. Next meeting is May 2 at the hall, according to Mrs. Vida Davies, secretary.

Women's Group In Clarkson Plans Family Night Supper

Plans for a "Family Night" supper at the Clarkson United Presbyterian Church annex April 26 were made at a meeting of the Women's Association Tuesday night.

Mrs. Marie George, chairman, said a committee will be selected. Mrs. Harry Thompson will present a program, including a guest speaker.

About 21 attended the meeting, which was opened with prayer by the Rev. Earl Barthlow of Poland, guest. Reports were given by Mrs. Velma Watson, treasurer, and Mrs. Verna Swaney, secretary.

Mrs. Dorothy Davis was in charge of the program. Plans were made for a bake sale April 20. Refreshments were served from a table decorated in an Easter theme with spring flowers.

A mother and daughter banquet is planned in May with Mrs. Swaney and Mrs. Watson in charge of the program. Hostesses will be Mrs. Mildred Welce, Mrs. Otis Gibson and Mrs. Kathryn Fitzsimmons.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hole have returned after spending the winter at Ft. Myers, Fla.

Jerry Hake of Fowler visited his aunt, Mrs. Thomas Kelly, Tuesday.

Carl Conkle is improving at Salem City Hospital following an operation Monday.

Center Ray Wietecha of the New York Giants retired after playing in 133 consecutive games. Wietecha is the new offensive line coach with Los Angeles.

Rogers Man Agrees To Beaver Extradition

LISBON — Leo Richard Falkner, 19, of Rogers R. D. 1 waived extradition Thursday before Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard for return to Beaver County on charges of burglary, larceny and miscellaneous mischief.

Falkner refused to leave Columbiana County Wednesday when William L. Artrup, 19, of Rogers and Robert J. Gorby, 20, of Negley waived extradition.

All were picked up for breaking into outside phone booths in Beaver County.

Rogers Man Agrees To Beaver Extradition

LISBON — Leo Richard Falkner, 19, of Rogers R. D. 1 waived extradition Thursday before Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard for return to Beaver County on charges of burglary, larceny and miscellaneous mischief.

Falkner refused to leave Columbiana County Wednesday when William L. Artrup, 19, of Rogers and Robert J. Gorby, 20, of Negley waived extradition.

All were picked up for breaking into outside phone booths in Beaver County.

Potter Baseball Coach Becomes Optimistic About '63 Season Which Opens Monday

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

"We might surprise a lot of people," is the optimistic report by Coach Jack Bair from the Potters' baseball camp at Patterson Field.

The East Liverpool coach feels strongly that his squad can go some place this season. "The attitude of the boys is the best I have seen here and the spirit is running high. They are all working hard in practice."

"WE DON'T have a lot of power, but the hitting in practice games has been consistent," Bair said.

He will get his first look at the Potter nine Monday at 4:30 on the Midland diamond when ELHS opens its 14-game schedule.

Seven lettermen are back from last year's squad. Looking over the pitching staff, a couple of righthanders, Roger Linville and Ron Burns, won letters last season and are being counted upon to handle a good share of the mound duties.

BAIR'S biggest loss from last year was Ed Six, a strong-armed righthander who won about every game he hurled for the Potters.

Backing up Linville and Burns are Keith Locke, another righthander, and the only southpaw pitcher on the squad, Bill Miller, a junior.

Mike Smith, a junior who won a letter last year, will return to the backstop position. Another Smith, Bill Smith, a sophomore, is the No. 2 catcher on the squad.

—:—

LOOKING around the infield, Bair said not every position is set. Battling for the first base job is Butch Nolan, a senior, and Phil Willshaw, a junior. Neither earned a letter last season.

The second base job lies among three, but Dave Bowersock, a junior, seems to be the leading candidate. He is being given a run for his money by sophomore Denny Burke. Another second base prospect is Bill Daniels, a senior.

FRANK McCOMAS, a junior letterman, has pretty well wrapped up shortstop, with Dick Heddleston, who earned his letter last season, holding down third base. Ken Davis, another letter-winner, has been tabbed for utility infield duty.

The only letterman in the outfield is Tom Kraft, who will be in left. Bair said, "I consider the left field spot filled."

In center, two sophomores are still in a two-way fight for the job. It's between Ralph Smith and Phil Stewart.

—:—

BOB MALTARICH, another sophomore, or John Hasenstab, a junior, will be in right field.

Bair added that he is urging the public and students to attend games this year. Admission is free.

The Potters will play their first seven games away, meeting Beaver Local May 2 in the first home tilt at Patterson Field. The sectional tournament will be held during the first week in May.

The 1963 schedule follows:

April 8—Midland, 4:30, there
April 10—Chester, 4:30, there
April 16—Toronto, there
April 17—Steubenville Big Red, 4:30, there
April 22—Weirton, 4:30, there
April 23—Struthers, there
April 30—Steub. Cent. Cath., 4:30, there

There wasn't too much to see Wednesday night in the Junior Basketball Tournament at Memorial Auditorium, but four good contests are promised tonight.

On hand opening night were two college scouts who will be back at ringside tonight as they and others continue their quest for talent.

Press Maranovich, assistant coach at North Carolina State University, and Eddie Melvin, head coach at Toledo, were in the stands Wednesday.

Maranovich, former head coach at Clemson University and in line for the head coaching job at North Carolina State in the next few years, said he has traveled more than 4,000 miles in the last month and hasn't come up with a good prospect so far.

The two scouts have a long list of names for the Ohio and Pennsylvania areas and many of those outstanding prospects are due to play in the Junior Tourney tonight.

★ ★ ★

RON ENSINGER, a topnotch infielder for the Beaver Local High a few years ago, was the only sophomore to make the traveling squad at Bowling Green

Ensinger was offered the chance to sign a Pittsburgh Pirate contract, but decided to take an athletic scholarship at Bowling Green instead. He will be used as utility infielder.

Ron, who is with the Bowling Green team on its southern tour, told his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ensinger, that he appreciated how much his high school coach — Flody Suarez — did for him while at Beaver Local.

It was Suarez who also directed young Ensinger to Bowling Green.

GARY MCKEE, who ran the mile and half-mile events for the East Liverpool track team last season, is a member of the track squad at St. Petersburg, Fla., Junior College.

He recently finished first in the mile event for St. Petersburg.

A REPORT from Cincinnati says if Ed Jucker were offered the job of general manager of the Cincinnati Royals, he just might take it.

The Royals are in the process of changing owners. Gaining controlling interest was Warren Hensel, a long - time friend of Jucker.

PETE ANKNEY, who spoke here several weeks ago, is taking advantage of his former contacts in the Canton area to land football players for Dayton University.

The Flyer coach has bagged Ben Bradley of Massillon High, a 275-pound 6-3 center-tackle, who was an All - American high school lineman.

THE STATE basketball tournament wasn't what it has been in the past but the Marion High School Pep Club drew praises from fans and newspapermen attending the state finals.

The club consists of a block of 143 girls. They work hard from late October to the opening of basketball season putting their show together.

They drill twice weekly, getting to school 45 minutes ahead of morning classes. They buy their own uniforms and pay their own way into the games. The block works upon commands of the head cheerleader.

East Liverpool had a block card formation at football games last year. Perhaps something could be developed for both sports if enough students would be interested.

CONGRATULATIONS to East Liverpool High School's student section and fans. Through your sportsmanlike actions at Potter home basketball games this season, ELHS finished second in the voting for the sportsmanship award given annually by the Big 8 Conference.

Junior Tourney Resumes Tonight

Action resumes tonight at 7 in the 16th annual Junior Basketball tournament sponsored by the Blue and White Nonpareil Club at Memorial Auditorium.

From tonight's games will emerge four winners who will advance to Saturday semi-finals.

Boston's Dance Studio, a strong quintet, listing talent from Pittsburgh, will clash with Cornecki A. C. of Beaver Falls in the opening game.

Gengarella's of Midland, one of the pre-tourney favorites loaded with all-state material from Ohio faces American Billiards at 8 p. m. Gengarella's is a heavy favorite to win its tourney opener over the Billiard five which is composed of talent from the Beaver Falls area.

Gip's All-Stars of Pittsburgh made up of top performers from Pittsburgh will meet Shontz-Myers of Sharon at 9 p. m. Shontz-Myers gained tonight's play by winning a forfeit in the opening round Wednesday.

The finale at 10 sends defending champion Riverview Florists against an upstart Midland USW 1212 team. The Midland squad was sparked in its opening victory by veteran Bill Sallis, an all-stater in Pennsylvania this season, who led Midland into the WPIAL semi-finals.

Riverview has a combination of the best in the Youngstown area plus several cagers from Western Pennsylvania.

Here's Tonight's Card For Junior Tourney

7—Boston's Dance Studio (ELO) vs. Cornecki A. C. (Beaver Falls)
8—Gengarella's (Midland) vs. American Billiards (ELO)
9—Gip's All-Stars (Pittsburgh) vs. Shontz-Myers (Sharon)
10—Riverview Florists (ELO) vs. Midland USW 1212

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — So what's so tough about this game of golf?

Ronnie Meeks of Tampa, playing his first round of golf and hitting a golf ball for the first time in his 15 years, got a hole-in-one on the 80-yard first hole at the par 3 golf center in Lakeland.

Playing his first round of golf over the same course, 13-year-old Tony Pletch of Lakeland got an ace on the 85-yard No. 16

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Golf's old guard is chuckling. Some of the graybeards showed the younger "big three" a thing or two in the opening round of the Masters golf tournament.

Instead of Palmer, Player or Nicklaus setting a fast pace going into today's second round, it was Bo Wininger, 40; and Mike Souchak, 35, on top with 69s, three under par. And only one stroke back were veterans Sam Snead, 50, Ed Furgol, 46, and Jay Hebert, 40.

With three testing rounds still to go, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player and Jack Nicklaus—the dominant trio in golf today — have plenty of time to pull out a victory. But, for one round at least, they had to take a back seat.

Palmer, 33, the defending champion shooting for a fourth Masters title, had to settle for a 2-over-par 74. So did 23-year-old Nicklaus.

Player, 27, and the only foreigner ever to win a Masters, remained well in contention with an opening 71, a score he shared with George Bayer.

Amateur Charlie Coe, an oil broker from Oklahoma City and 2-time U.S. Amateur king, tied at par 72 with Billy Maxwell.

No one else among the 86 starters managed to match the sprawling Augusta National Golf Club course par of 36-36—72. Tricky, gusty winds and hard greens were major factors in keeping the scores high. Approach shots would hit the baked putting surfaces and bound away.

Perhaps the largest opening day crowd in history milled over the beautiful, 6,850-yard course which grand slam champion Bob Jones helped design. An unofficial estimate put the crowd at 25,000.

After today's round, the field will be trimmed to the low 44 plus ties—except that anyone within 10 shots of the leader qualifies for the final 36 holes.

Beanball Incident Comes Up In Indians-Giants Game

Tribe Freshman Pitcher Hurt On Ball Thrown By Jack Sanford

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland and San Francisco repair crews were working today on Floyd Weaver's damaged elbow and Jack Sanford's injured pride while Umpire John Rice was making a full report on the tremors that shook Modesto, Calif., in the exhibition season's first serious beanball incident.

Sanford, a 24-game winner for the National League champion Giants last season, was the focal point as San Francisco went down to its 17th loss in 26 games, 11-7 to the Indians Thursday.

Sanford started the rumblings in the fourth inning while pitching to Weaver, Cleveland's rookie hurler.

The third pitch plunked Weaver in the right elbow. Plate Umpire Rice immediately warned Sanford, which brought San Francisco Manager Al Dark hustling out of the dugout.

Dark asked why Rice had not warned Weaver when Willie Mays went sprawling in the third inning, then apparently followed with a remark about American League umpires and was ejected.

In the fifth inning, Sonny Siebert, Weaver's replacement, drew a warning from Rice when he sailed a pitch over Sanford's head. Rice said he would send a full report to Commissioner Ford Frick.

"I warned both Sanford and Siebert about beanballs," he said. "I didn't warn Weaver, because I didn't think he was intentionally throwing at Mays."

After the tremors had subsided, it became evident that Sanford's pride also must have suffered. He was tagged for all 11 runs, four homers—by Woodie Held, Tito Francona, Max Alvis and Ellis Burton—and has given up 18 runs in the last 12 innings.

Weaver, who had just reutrned to action after a two-week absence nursing a tender elbow, now will be sidelined again indefinitely.

"I tried to pitch him (Mays) tight and then outside," the prize rookie said. "The pitch slipped and got away."

Dark stormed after his ejection: "If they're going to throw at Mays, we're going to throw at their pitchers. I'm getting tired of having them throw at Mays, Cepeda and Alou and getting away with it. They have pretty bad umpires in the American League if that fellow (Rice) is an example."

In San Diego last weekend, an umpire warned both Dark and Cleveland Manager Birdie Tebbetts after Mays ducked out of the way of a pitch and Indians' catcher John Romano was hit in the following inning.

Tebbetts blasted Dark:

"I hope Dark is completely satisfied," said Birdie. 'He might have ruined a young pitcher's career. We haven't thrown at a Giant player all spring. I'll take a lie detector test a lot sooner than they will.

"Each incident started with Mays ducking away. We have no intention of throwing at anybody, and I told Willie this. Wait until they tell National League managers it's illegal to pitch inside to Willie.

"Why should I throw at Mays—as great as he is? I wouldn't want to hurt him. But I know I'm not going to convince Alvin or his coaches if they believe otherwise.

"As far as Siebert is concerned, the boy has a sore wrist and couldn't control the ball."

Before the bus left Modesto Thursday for Stockton where the rival clubs meet again today, Tebbetts said he has definitely settled on Jim Grant for the season opener in Minneapolis next Tuesday and Dick Donovan is slated for the home game inaugural Thursday against Detroit.

The Indians reduced their squad to 33 players Thursday by sending infielder Larry Brown to Jacksonville on 24-hour recall. Five more players must be cut by Tuesday.

A trio of comeback pitchers, Lew Burdette of Milwaukee, Luis Arroyo of the New York Yankees and Cincinnati's Al Worthington again turned in impressive performances.

Burdette brought his earned run average to 0.67 as the Braves whipped Philadelphia 9-2 at West Palm Beach, Arroyo lowered his ERA to 0.69 while the Yankees shut out Pittsburgh 2-0 at Fort Lauderdale and Worthington reduced his to 0.43 as the Reds lost to the Chicago White Sox 9-5 at Macon, Ga.

In other games, St. Louis walloped Minnesota 12-3 at St. Petersburg, the Chicago Cubs defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-2 at Mesa, Detroit edged the New York Mets 3-2 in 10 innings at Lakeland, Washington nipped Baltimore 4-3 at Miami and Houston downed the Los Angeles Angels 5-2 at Bakersfield, Calif.

Allen Clubs Homer In Twins' 12-3 Loss

Bernie Allen clubbed his second home run of the spring training season but again it came in a losing cause as St. Louis whipped the Minnesota Twins, 12-3 Thursday at St. Petersburg.

Others Open Season Tuesday

It's Play Ball On Monday At Cincinnati, Capital

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees and Los Angeles Dodgers were the preseason betting favorites to meet in the World Series as the 20 major league teams prepared to open the 1963 season with two games next Monday and nine more the following day.

The latest odds from Las Vegas makes the Yankees a prohibitive 1-3 favorite to capture the American League pennant. The betting gentry sees a much tougher fight in the National. The Dodgers are a 2-1 choice followed by the San Francisco Giants at 12-5 and the Cincinnati Reds at 4-1.

All teams will start from scratch next week when some 350,000 persons are expected to attend the two-day openers.

Washington and Cincinnati will share the spotlight Monday in their traditional openers a day in advance of the rest.

Some 47,000 fans, including President John F. Kennedy, will fill D.C. Stadium in Washington to see the Senators open their drive to escape the American League cellar against the Baltimore Orioles.

The President will throw out the first ball. Thereafter the pitching will be in the hands of expected southpaw starters Don Rudolph of Washington and Steve Barber of Baltimore. Rudolph had an 8-10 record last year and Barber was 9-6.

A capacity of 30,000 will be on hand in Cincinnati the same afternoon where the Reds' lefthanded ace Jim O'Toole (16-13) will be opposed by right-hander Earl Francis (9-8) of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

All teams with the exception of the Senators and Orioles will be in action Tuesday. The schedule:

American League—New York at Kansas City, Chicago at Detroit, Boston at Los Angeles, Cleveland at Minnesota.

National League — Los Angeles at Chicago, San Francisco at Houston, Milwaukee at Pittsburgh, St. Louis at New York, Cincinnati at Philadelphia (night).

3 Important Tests Head List For Top 3-Year-Olds

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

With the Kentucky Derby only four weeks away, three important races for 3-year-olds eligible for the Louisville classic headline Saturday's thoroughbred program at Aqueduct, Bay Meadows and Oaklawn Park.

Topping the list is the $50,000-added Gotham Stakes at Aqueduct, where George D. Widener's Crewman makes his first start since upsetting Never Bend last Nov. 10 in the $273,530 Garden State Stakes. Crewman wasn't named for the May 4 Derby, but he's in a position to dampen the hopes of other Kentucky hopefuls.

The $25,000 Arkansas Derby at Oaklawn Park, and the $15,000 California Derby Trial at Bay Meadows will be watched for other possible Louisville candidates.

Crewman is following the footsteps of his stablemate, Jaipur, who came out of winter quarters to capture the 1-mile Gotham. Crewman, the even money choice, and half a dozen others are expected for the Gotham, third of four major Aqueduct races for sophomores. The finale is the $75,000 Wood Memorial April 20, last major eastern test before the Kentucky Derby.

Patrice Jacobs' Bonjour, winner of the Governor's Gold Cup at Bowie but upset by Jet Traffic in Aqueduct's Bay Shore, is rated Crewman's top rival. Bonjour and Crewman both carry 122 pounds, with John L. Rotz riding Miss Jacobs' colt and Willie Shoemaker piloting Crewman. Shoemaker won it last spring with Jaipur, who later took the Belmont Stakes and earned the 3-year-old title.

A. J .Mesler's Taut Ship, Florida Breeders Stakes winner, packs 118 pounds, with 124 for Wheatley Stable's Bold Commander and Alfred Vanderbilt's Might and Main.

A dozen may start in the 1⅛-mile Arkansas Derby, including T. D. Buhl's Lemon Twist, Louis B. Rogers' Blaze Starr, Bar-Al-Mar Farm's Devil It Is and River Divide Farm's Cosmic Tip. Lemon Twist was second to City Line in the Louisiana Derby. Cosmic Tip took the Arkansas Derby prep last week.

The California Derby Trial, at a mile, may be split into two divisions with so many eligibles waiting to start. This is a prevue for the $35,000 California Derby April 20. The probables include J.K. Houssel's Y Flash, El Peco Ranch's Beekeeper, C.W. Worley's Tourlourou, Llangollen Farm's Prince Mito and Sky Blue Stable's Switchback.

Beekeeper, Switchback and Tourlourou were also rans in the Santa Anita Derby won by Candy Spots. Y Flash won a division of the 1962 Hollywood Juvenile Stakes, but wasn't named for the Kentucky Derby.

Lakers Fall, Playoff 2-1 With Hawks

ST. LOUIS (AP)—"After the heart-breaking loss we had the other night," said Coach Harry Gallatin of the St. Louis Hawks, "we still figured we could beat this club and I think we proved it. I think we'll go all the way now if Zelmo (Beaty) can keep up the good work."

The proof, according to Gallatin, was the 125-112 lacing the Hawks handed the Los Angeles Lakers Thursday night in the Western Division final of the National Basketball Association playoffs in St. Louis. The Lakers still hold a 2-1 lead in the best-of-7 set heading into the fourth game in St. Louis Saturday night.

One of the Hawks defeats was a heartbreaker Tuesday in Los Angeles when the Lakers outscored the Hawks, 9-0, in the last 100 seconds for a 101-99 triumph.

The difference Thursday was rookies Beaty and Charlie Vaughn who shook off uninspiring performances in the first two games when they managed only 12 points between them. Thursday night, Beaty had 21 and led both teams with 15 rebounds and Vaughn notched 23, hitting 10 of 16 from the field.

Bob Pettit's 33 points paced the Hawks, who used a 43-point third quarter for a 93-76 bulge and then held off the Lakers.

Charleston Set As Site For '65 Cage Tourney

PARKERSBURG (AP) — The State Secondary School Activities Commission Board of Appeals has departed from a long-standing custom and decided to hold the 1965 West Virginia High School Basketball Tournament in Charleston.

The board, in announcing the change, said a Kanawha County School principal will be selected later to direct the tournament at the Charleston Civic Center.

Huntington and Morgantown have alternated as host to the high school classic for a number of years.

The tournament is scheduled for Morgantown next year and at Huntington in 1966.

The decision to move the tourney to Charleston apparently stemmed in part from the offer of Civic Center officials to charge a flat fee of $1,900 for rental of the basketball arena.

Yanks Picked Again With Tigers In Second

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —The 1963 World Series will open Wednesday, Oct. 2 at Yankee Stadium, barring rain or another National League playoff. Detroit, Minnesota, Baltimore and possibly Los Angeles will be in on the American League pennant chase but it will have the same old ending.

Last year was the year to beat the Yankees when their pitching staff was wobbling, Mickey Mantle hurting and Tony Kubek in the Army until August. They are not likely to let their guard down again.

Mickey Mantle calls this Yankee club the best he has played with since he came to New York in 1951. The last Las Vegas odds printed here listed the Bombers odds-on as a 2-5 shot.

Ralph Houk, no man to waken sleeping dogs, tells all comers he expects trouble from "all of them." Trouble, maybe, but not a serious threat to his third straight pennant since succeeding Casey Stengel.

Here's the way it looks from here:

1. New York
2. Detroit
3. Minnseota
4. Baltimore
5. Los Angeles
6. Cleveland
7. Chicago
8. Boston
9. Kansas City
10. Washington

Leafs On Top In Semi-Final Ice Playoff

By The Associated Press

Montreal coach Toe Blake, understandably close-mouthed after his Canadiens had been knocked out of the Stanley Cup semifinals in five games, nevertheless had one firm comment to make.

Asked if he had any plans for next year, Blake said:

"Yes, sir. I sure do."

Then he turned and walked away.

Toronto, defending cup champions and leaders during the regular National Hockey League season, blasted Montreal 5-0 Thursday night and nailed down the best-of-7 semifinal in five games.

The muscular Leafs will meet the winner of the Chicago-Detroit series in the Cup finals. Detroit took a 3-2 lead in games Thursday by edging Chicago 4-2.

"We're just a better hockey club," Toronto coach Punch Imlach said.

"We started hustling again. We did all the things we didn't do in Montreal. In Montreal we didn't hit, we didn't check and we didn't score."

Imlach was referring to Montreal's only victory in the series, a 3-1 triumph on Canadien ice Tuesday.

Thursday, however, the Leafs had things all their own way. They rushed out to a 3-0 first period lead then coasted in from there, concentrating on preserving goalie Johnny Bower's second shutout of the series.

The Red Wings, who lost their first two playoff games, now go home for the sixth game Sunday. Chicago must win to force a showdown in Chicago Tuesday.

Parker MacDonald scored on a power play in the last minute of the middle period, breaking a 2-2 tie and putting the Red Wings ahead to stay.

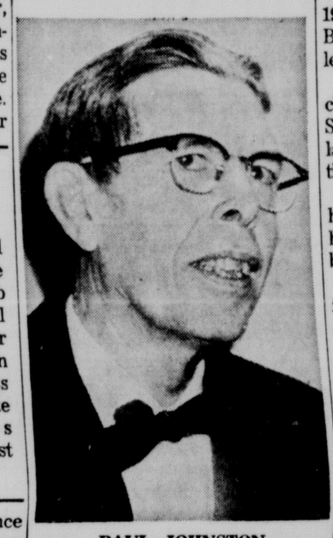
Chester Man Named Judge For Canadian Beagle Show

Paul Johnston of Chester, among the district's noted authorities on beagle hounds, has been selected to judge one of the top dog shows in Canada in June.

The genial 56-year-old barber who has been raising dogs since 1927 will serve as a judge in a specialty show to be sponsored by the Central Ontario Beagle Club at Toronto June 9.



PAUL JOHNSTON

Johnston, of 229 Virginia Ave., has served as a judge in various American shows, and is recognized by the American Kennel Club, but this trip will be the first time he has gone past the nation's borders in pursuit of what for him is a hobby.

The Toronto show is among the top in Canada and compares with the Westminster show at New York's Madison Square Garden according to Johnston.

American judges have rarely been asked to serve before, Johnston said.

There are some minor differences between standards of dog excellence in America and Canada, and Johnson has acquainted himself with the Canadian requirements concerning the head, chest and front, body conformation, stance and other factors.

Johnson said he believed Canadian breeders have not achieved the same level of development of beagles as Americans, and he hopes to serve a role in revising some of the judging standards so as align the Canadian breed more with the American.

Johnson said he began a number of years ago to serve as a judge at the request of others after he had been raising beagles for some time. He is a member of the East Liverpool Beagle Club.

He has judged at the Pittsburgh and Wheeling all - breed shows and elsewhere in the district. He said his qualifications as a judge were checked by the AKC and the CKC after the invitation was extended from the Ontario club, and he received final confirmation of the post just last week.

Johnston is pleased with his selection for the judging post — "It's something I've dreamed of." He plans to drive to Toronto, taking a week's vacation for the first time in eight years.

EL Beagle Club Sets First Trial Saturday

The first spring derby trial will be held Saturday at the East Liverpool Beagle Club near Glenmoor. Entries will close at 8 a. m. and judges for the trial will be Sam Brown and Alfred Bayless, 13 inch class and Dick Roe and Chuck White 15 inch class. The Ladies Auxiliary will serve breakfast and lunch.

Joe Giambra To Sub For Archer In Fight

BOSTON (AP)—Joe Archer of New York will be unable to make his nationally televised boxing commitment, promoter Sam Silverman announced Friday and Joey Giambra will replace him.

Giambra moves into the featured 10-rounder at Boston Arena against middleweight Joe Denucci of Newton, Mass., which will be televised at 10 p.m., EST, Saturday night by ABC.

Silverman said Archer has been sidelined by a cracked rib suffered in training Wednesday.

Giambra, from Buffalo, N.Y., is currently ranked eighth among the middleweights.

Ham Shoot Set

LISBON — The Columbiana County Fish and Game Association will sponsor a ham shoot Sunday at 2 p. m. at the club range east of Elkton. There will be trap shooting and still targets and the club will furnish shells. The range will be open for night shooting each Wednesday at 6 during the summer and fall.

To Address Seniors

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)—Findlay College's commencement speaker May 31 is to be Clarence L. Wynd, vice president and director of the Eastman Kodak Co., Rochester, Ny., president O. J. Wilson has announced.

Next season's Army basketball captain is Dick Chilcoat from Millersville, Md.

Beanball Incident Comes Up In Indians-Giants Game

Tribe Freshman Pitcher Hurt On Ball Thrown By Jack Sanford

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland and San Francisco repair crews were working today on Floyd Weaver's damaged elbow and Jack Sanford's injured pride while Umpire John Rice was making a full report on the tremors that shook Modesto, Calif., in the exhibition season's first serious beanball incident.

Sanford, a 24-game winner for the National League champion Giants last season, was the focal point as San Francisco went down to its 17th loss in 26 games, 11-7 to the Indians Thursday.

Sanford started the rumblings in the fourth inning while pitching to Weaver, Cleveland's rookie hurler.

The third pitch plunked Weaver in the right elbow. Plate Umpire Rice immediately warned Sanford, which brought San Francisco Manager Al Dark hustling out of the dugout.

Dark asked why Rice had not warned Weaver when Willie Mays went sprawling in the third inning, then apparently followed with a remark about American League umpires and was ejected.

In the fifth inning, Sonny Siebert, Weaver's replacement, drew a warning from Rice when he sailed a pitch over Sanford's head. Rice said he would send a full report to Commissioner Ford Frick.

"I warned both Sanford and Siebert about beanballs," he said. "I didn't warn Weaver, because I didn't think he was intentionally throwing at Mays."

After the tremors had subsided, it became evident that Sanford's pride also must have suffered. He was tagged for all 11 runs, four homers—by Woodie Held, Tito Francona, Max Alvis and Ellis Burton—and has given up 18 runs in the last 12 innings.

Weaver, who had just reutrned to action after a two-week absence nursing a tender elbow, now will be sidelined again indefinitely.

"I tried to pitch him (Mays) tight and then outside," the prize rookie said. "The pitch slipped and got away."

Dark stormed after his ejection: "If they're going to throw at Mays, we're going to throw at their pitchers. I'm getting tired of having them throw at Mays, Cepeda and Alou and getting away with it. They have pretty bad umpires in the American League if that fellow (Rice) is an example."

In San Diego last weekend, an umpire warned both Dark and Cleveland Manager Birdie Tebbetts after Mays ducked out of the way of a pitch and Indians' catcher John Romano was hit in the following inning.

Tebbetts blasted Dark:

"I hope Dark is completely satisfied," said Birdie. 'He might have ruined a young pitcher's career. We haven't thrown at a Giant player all spring. I'll take a lie detector test a lot sooner than they will.

"Each incident started with Mays ducking away. We have no intention of throwing at anybody, and I told Willie this. Wait until they tell National League managers it's illegal to pitch inside to Willie.

"Why should I throw at Mays—as great as he is? I wouldn't want to hurt him. But I know I'm not going to convince Alvin or his coaches if they believe otherwise.

"As far as Siebert is concerned, the boy has a sore wrist and couldn't control the ball."

Before the bus left Modesto Thursday for Stockton where the rival clubs meet again today, Tebbetts said he has definitely settled on Jim Grant for the season opener in Minneapolis next Tuesday and Dick Donovan is slated for the home game inaugural Thursday against Detroit.

The Indians reduced their squad to 33 players Thursday by sending infielder Larry Brown to Jacksonville on 24-hour recall. Five more players must be cut by Tuesday.

A trio of comeback pitchers, Lew Burdette of Milwaukee, Luis Arroyo of the New York Yankees and Cincinnati's Al Worthington again turned in impressive performances.

Burdette brought his earned run average to 0.67 as the Braves whipped Philadelphia 9-2 at West Palm Beach, Arroyo lowered his ERA to 0.69 while the Yankees shut out Pittsburgh 2-0 at Fort Lauderdale and Worthington reduced his to 0.43 as the Reds lost to the Chicago White Sox 9-5 at Macon, Ga.

In other games, St. Louis walloped Minnesota 12-3 at St. Petersburg, the Chicago Cubs defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-2 at Mesa, Detroit edged the New York Mets 3-2 in 10 innings at Lakeland, Washington nipped Baltimore 4-3 at Miami and Houston downed the Los Angeles Angels 5-2 at Bakersfield, Calif.

Allen Clubs Homer In Twins' 12-3 Loss

Bernie Allen clubbed his second home run of the spring training season but again it came in a losing cause as St. Louis whipped the Minnesota Twins, 12-3 Thursday at St. Petersburg.

Others Open Season Tuesday

It's Play Ball On Monday At Cincinnati, Capital

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees and Los Angeles Dodgers were the preseason betting favorites to meet in the World Series as the 20 major league teams prepared to open the 1963 season with two games next Monday and nine more the following day.

The latest odds from Las Vegas makes the Yankees a prohibitive 1-3 favorite to capture the American League pennant. The betting gentry sees a much tougher fight in the National. The Dodgers are a 2-1 choice followed by the San Francisco Giants at 12-5 and the Cincinnati Reds at 4-1.

All teams will start from scratch next week when some 350,000 persons are expected to attend the two-day openers.

Washington and Cincinnati will share the spotlight Monday in their traditional openers a day in advance of the rest.

Some 47,000 fans, including President John F. Kennedy, will fill D.C. Stadium in Washington to see the Senators open their drive to escape the American League cellar against the Baltimore Orioles.

The President will throw out the first ball. Thereafter the pitching will be in the hands of expected southpaw starters Don Rudolph of Washington and Steve Barber of Baltimore. Rudolph had an 8-10 record last year and Barber was 9-6.

A capacity of 30,000 will be on hand in Cincinnati the same afternoon where the Reds' lefthanded ace Jim O'Toole (16-13) will be opposed by right-hander Earl Francis (9-8) of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

All teams with the exception of the Senators and Orioles will be in action Tuesday. The schedule:

American League—New York at Kansas City, Chicago at Detroit, Boston at Los Angeles, Cleveland at Minnesota.

National League — Los Angeles at Chicago, San Francisco at Houston, Milwaukee at Pittsburgh, St. Louis at New York, Cincinnati at Philadelphia (night).

3 Important Tests Head List For Top 3-Year-Olds

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

With the Kentucky Derby only four weeks away, three important races for 3-year-olds eligible for the Louisville classic headline Saturday's thoroughbred program at Aqueduct, Bay Meadows and Oaklawn Park.

Topping the list is the $50,000-added Gotham Stakes at Aqueduct, where George D. Widener's Crewman makes his first start since upsetting Never Bend last Nov. 10 in the $273,530 Garden State Stakes. Crewman wasn't named for the May 4 Derby, but he's in a position to dampen the hopes of other Kentucky hopefuls.

The $25,000 Arkansas Derby at Oaklawn Park, and the $15,000 California Derby Trial at Bay Meadows will be watched for other possible Louisville candidates.

Crewman is following the footsteps of his stablemate, Jaipur, who came out of winter quarters to capture the 1-mile Gotham. Crewman, the even money choice, and half a dozen others are expected for the Gotham, third of four major Aqueduct races for sophomores. The finale is the $75,000 Wood Memorial April 20, last major eastern test before the Kentucky Derby.

Patrice Jacobs' Bonjour, winner of the Governor's Gold Cup at Bowie but upset by Jet Traffic in Aqueduct's Bay Shore, is rated Crewman's top rival. Bonjour and Crewman both carry 122 pounds, with John L. Rotz riding Miss Jacobs' colt and Willie Shoemaker piloting Crewman. Shoemaker won it last spring with Jaipur, who later took the Belmont Stakes and earned the 3-year-old title.

A. J .Mesler's Taut Ship, Florida Breeders Stakes winner, packs 118 pounds, with 124 for Wheatley Stable's Bold Commander and Alfred Vanderbilt's Might and Main.

A dozen may start in the 1⅛-mile Arkansas Derby, including T. D. Buhl's Lemon Twist, Louis B. Rogers' Blaze Starr, Bar-Al-Mar Farm's Devil It Is and River Divide Farm's Cosmic Tip. Lemon Twist was second to City Line in the Louisiana Derby. Cosmic Tip took the Arkansas Derby prep last week.

The California Derby Trial, at a mile, may be split into two divisions with so many eligibles waiting to start. This is a prevue for the $35,000 California Derby April 20. The probables include J.K. Houssel's Y Flash, El Peco Ranch's Beekeeper, C.W. Worley's Tourlourou, Llangollen Farm's Prince Mito and Sky Blue Stable's Switchback.

Beekeeper, Switchback and Tourlourou were also rans in the Santa Anita Derby won by Candy Spots. Y Flash won a division of the 1962 Hollywood Juvenile Stakes, but wasn't named for the Kentucky Derby.

Lakers Fall, Playoff 2-1 With Hawks

ST. LOUIS (AP)—"After the heart-breaking loss we had the other night," said Coach Harry Gallatin of the St. Louis Hawks, "we still figured we could beat this club and I think we proved it. I think we'll go all the way now if Zelmo (Beaty) can keep up the good work."

The proof, according to Gallatin, was the 125-112 lacing the Hawks handed the Los Angeles Lakers Thursday night in the Western Division final of the National Basketball Association playoffs in St. Louis. The Lakers still hold a 2-1 lead in the best-of-7 set heading into the fourth game in St. Louis Saturday night.

One of the Hawks defeats was a heartbreaker Tuesday in Los Angeles when the Lakers outscored the Hawks, 9-0, in the last 100 seconds for a 101-99 triumph.

The difference Thursday was rookies Beaty and Charlie Vaughn who shook off uninspiring performances in the first two games when they managed only 12 points between them. Thursday night, Beaty had 21 and led both teams with 15 rebounds and Vaughn notched 23, hitting 10 of 16 from the field.

Bob Pettit's 33 points paced the Hawks, who used a 43-point third quarter for a 93-76 bulge and then held off the Lakers.

Charleston Set As Site For '65 Cage Tourney

PARKERSBURG (AP) — The State Secondary School Activities Commission Board of Appeals has departed from a long-standing custom and decided to hold the 1965 West Virginia High School Basketball Tournament in Charleston.

The board, in announcing the change, said a Kanawha County School principal will be selected later to direct the tournament at the Charleston Civic Center.

Huntington and Morgantown have alternated as host to the high school classic for a number of years.

The tournament is scheduled for Morgantown next year and at Huntington in 1966.

The decision to move the tourney to Charleston apparently stemmed in part from the offer of Civic Center officials to charge a flat fee of $1,900 for rental of the basketball arena.

Leafs On Top In Semi-Final Ice Playoff

By The Associated Press

Montreal coach Toe Blake, understandably close-mouthed after his Canadiens had been knocked out of the Stanley Cup semifinals in five games, nevertheless had one firm comment to make.

Asked if he had any plans for next year, Blake said:

"Yes, sir. I sure do."

Then he turned and walked away.

Toronto, defending cup champions and leaders during the regular National Hockey League season, blasted Montreal 5-0 Thursday night and nailed down the best-of-7 semifinal in five games.

The muscular Leafs will meet the winner of the Chicago-Detroit series in the Cup finals. Detroit took a 3-2 lead in games Thursday by edging Chicago 4-2.

"We're just a better hockey club," Toronto coach Punch Imlach said.

"We started hustling again. We did all the things we didn't do in Montreal. In Montreal we didn't hit, we didn't check and we didn't score."

Imlach was referring to Montreal's only victory in the series, a 3-1 triumph on Canadien ice Tuesday.

Thursday, however, the Leafs had things all their own way. They rushed out to a 3-0 first period lead then coasted in from there, concentrating on preserving goalie Johnny Bower's second shutout of the series.

The Red Wings, who lost their first two playoff games, now go home for the sixth game Sunday. Chicago must win to force a showdown in Chicago Tuesday.

Parker MacDonald scored on a power play in the last minute of the middle period, breaking a 2-2 tie and putting the Red Wings ahead to stay.

Chester Man Named Judge For Canadian Beagle Show

Paul Johnston of Chester, among the district's noted authorities on beagle hounds, has been selected to judge one of the top dog shows in Canada in June. The genial 56-year-old barber who has been raising dogs since 1927 will serve as a judge in a specialty show to be sponsored by the Central Ontario Beagle Club at Toronto June 9.

PAUL JOHNSTON

Johnston, of 229 Virginia Ave., has served as a judge in various American shows, and is recognized by the American Kennel Club, but this trip will be the first time he has gone past the nation's borders in pursuit of what for him is a hobby.

The Toronto show is among the top in Canada and compares with the Westminster show at New York's Madison Square Garden according to Johnston.

American judges have rarely been asked to serve before, Johnston said.

There are some minor differences between standards of dog excellence in America and Canada, and Johnson has acquainted himself with the Canadian requirements concerning the head, chest and front, body conformation, stance and other factors.

Johnson said he believed Canadian breeders have not achieved the same level of development of beagles as Americans, and he hopes to serve a role in revising some of the judging standards so as align the Canadian breed more with the American.

Johnson said he began a number of years ago to serve as a judge at the request of others after he had been raising beagles for some time. He is a member of the East Liverpool Beagle Club.

He has judged at the Pittsburgh and Wheeling all - breed shows and elsewhere in the district. He said his qualifications as a judge were checked by the AKC and the CKC after the invitation was extended from the Ontario club, and he received final confirmation of the post just last week.

Johnson is pleased with his selection for the judging post — "It's something I've dreamed of." He plans to drive to Toronto, taking a week's vacation for the first time in eight years.

EL Beagle Club Sets First Trial Saturday

The first spring derby trial will be held Saturday at the East Liverpool Beagle Club near Glenmoor. Entries will close at 8 a. m. and judges for the trial will be Sam Brown and Alfred Bayless, 13 inch class and Dick Roe and Chuck White 15 inch class. The Ladies Auxiliary will serve breakfast and lunch.

Joe Giambra To Sub For Archer In Fight

BOSTON (AP)—Joe Archer of New York will be unable to make his nationally televised boxing commitment, promoter Sam Silverman announced Friday and Joey Giambra will replace him.

Giambra moves into the featured 10-rounder at Boston Arena against middleweight Joe Denucci of Newton, Mass., which will be televised at 10 p.m., EST, Saturday night by ABC.

Silverman said Archer has been sidelined by a cracked rib suffered in training Wednesday.

Giambra, from Buffalo, N.Y., is currently ranked eighth among the middleweights.

Yanks Picked Again With Tigers In Second

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —The 1963 World Series will open Wednesday, Oct. 2 at Yankee Stadium, barring rain or another National League playoff. Detroit, Minnesota, Baltimore and possibly Los Angeles will be in on the American League pennant chase but it will have the same old ending.

Last year was the year to beat the Yankees when their pitching staff was wobbling, Mickey Mantle hurting and Tony Kubek in the Army until August. They are not likely to let their guard down again.

Mickey Mantle calls this Yankee club the best he has played with since he came to New York in 1951. The last Las Vegas odds printed here listed the Bombers odds-on as a 2-5 shot.

Ralph Houk, no man to waken sleeping dogs, tells all comers he expects trouble from "all of them." Trouble, maybe, but not a serious threat to his third straight pennant since succeeding Casey Stengel.

Here's the way it looks from here:

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

There's No Business Like Sick Business

When George Gobel made his TV debut a few years ago, he noted that other comics before him had adopted certain health organizations for which they helped raise funds — muscular dystrophy, heart disease, and the like.

Hal Humphrey

"Know how much of a chance I've got," announced George, rather skeptically. "Most of the good diseases already are taken." This little sally of George's was made before TV became permeated with the Kildares and Caseys or the Nurses and the Eleventh Hour headfixers.

-:-

NOW THE TIDE has been reversed, and there are so many diseases that we face the risk of running out of Hollywood personalities.

Just last week, for instance, Polly Bergen was honored by the National Kidney Disease Foundation for playing both the donor and receiver in a dramatic kidney transplant episode for Dr. Kildare.

Actually, the Kidney Foundation got gypped, because most of the hour was taken up with showing how the neglected twin (Polly) with the good kidneys was reacting to the news that the bad, selfish twin (also Polly) needed a new kidney to save her life.

WE DIDN'T even get to see Kildare and Gillespie effecting the transplant. The drama ended with the twins being wheeled into surgery, and the good twin giving the bad twin a kind of two-finger good luck salute, the way Errol Flynn did to Baron von Richthofen just before he shot him down in World War I.

But the Kidney Foundation was so thrilled at this much recognition that it spent a $600 donation for full-page advertisements in Variety and Hollywood Reporter to thank Polly and everyone else involved, including six TV sponsors.

Polly also wound up with a scroll extolling her performance, plus a necklace from which hangs a solid gold "K" letter. She may rue the day she accepted these honors, however, for within the next few weeks her movie, "The Caretakers," is being released, and in it she plays a homicidal schizophrenic.

ACCORDING TO her publicity agents, the National Association for Mental Health already is laying big plans to have Polly tour several cities with the movie. How can she refuse to in effect become Miss Schizophrenic of 1963, after holding still for what amounts to being named Miss Kidney Transplant of 1963?

On the other hand, maybe the Mental Health people will decide that Polly has become too identified and typed as a kidney patient to risk using her as a case-history schizophrenic.

TV sponsors always have been sensitive about employing personalities who they feel have become indelibly associated with a competitive product. It will be years, for example, before Dinah Shore can be sponsored by another car maker besides her long-time sponsor.

IF THIS identification bungaboo should begin to bother the voluntary health organizations, many TV and movie stars already have made themselves useless for service in any of these causes.

Is it likely that Alcoholics Anonymous would want Dean Martin to head a fund-raising telethon? Although we are assured his identification with ol' John Barleycorn is all in fun, there must be many of his fans who are convinced that the way to fame and fortune is four parts gin and one part vermouth.

And the entire medical world will fall prostrate if Dick Chamberlain (Kildare) or Vince Edwards (Casey) ever actually is hospitalized with some virus for which there is no ready diagnosis. The chances are that under such circumstances niether lad could afford to enter a hospital, even if he had Blue Cross.

The unlucky producer of the series would be better off spiriting his ailing charge off to some uncertified rest home where the resident physician is Boris Karloff.

"Look, Boris, if the kid isn't better in a week, lose him, see?"

Vote Board To Issue Ballots To Absentees

Civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots for the May 7 primaries will become available Monday at the County Election Board's office.

The absentee ballots are available for persons who will be outside Columbiana County and at least 10 miles from their home precinct on Election Day. The disabled voters' ballots are for persons unable to get to the polls because of illness or infirmity.

Issuance of the ballots will close at 4 p. m. Thursday, May 2. To be counted at the polls, they must be returned to the board's office by noon Friday, May 3. Ballots have been available since March 8 for armed forces personnel and their spouses and civilians residing temporarily outside the U. S.

IF THIS identification bungaboo should begin to bother the voluntary health organizations, many TV and movie stars already have made themselves useless for service in any of these causes.

Is it likely that Alcoholics Anonymous would want Dean Martin to head a fund-raising telethon? Although we are assured his identification with ol' John Barleycorn is all in fun, there must be many of his fans who are convinced that the way to fame and fortune is four parts gin and one part vermouth.

And the entire medical world will fall prostrate if Dick Chamberlain (Kildare) or Vince Edwards (Casey) ever actually is hospitalized with some virus for which there is no ready diagnosis. The chances are that under such circumstances niether lad could afford to enter a hospital, even if he had Blue Cross.

The unlucky producer of the series would be better off spiriting his ailing charge off to some uncertified rest home where the resident physician is Boris Karloff.

"Look, Boris, if the kid isn't better in a week, lose him, see?"

Vote Board To Issue Ballots To Absentees

Civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots for the May 7 primaries will become available Monday at the County Election Board's office.

The absentee ballots are available for persons who will be outside Columbiana County and at least 10 miles from their home precinct on Election Day. The disabled voters' ballots are for persons unable to get to the polls because of illness or infirmity.

Issuance of the ballots will close at 4 p. m. Thursday, May 2. To be counted at the polls, they must be returned to the board's office by noon Friday, May 3. Ballots have been available since March 8 for armed forces personnel and their spouses and civilians residing temporarily outside the U. S.

Power System To Install Big Computer At Canton

CANTON — Plans of the American Electric Power System to install the electric utility industry's most advanced large - scale computer information and operating center here were announced Thursday by President Donald C. Cook.

The computer center will achieve automatic, minute - by - minute control of the AEP System's seven - state electric power network and centralization of its accounting and billing operations.

It will be linked by the system's own 1,700-mile microwave communication network with satellite computers in Fort Wayne, Ind.; and Roanoke, Va., and with the system's 16 major power plants. Final links in the microwave grid will be completed simultaneously with the Canton center.

The center will cost close to $6 million, including the necessary microwave extensions, and is scheduled for completion in late 1964. It will be located in a three-story addition to the Ohio Power Co. General Office building now under construction in Canton. Ohio Power is one of six electric utility operating companies making up the AEP System.

The installation will consist of two separate but compatible transistorized computer systems:

An automatic load - frequency control and economic dispatch system, a combination that will include a Leeds & Northrup Co. analog computer control system and digital telemetering and an International Business Machines Corp. No. 1710 digital computer system;

A large - scale, tape - oriented, general - purpose IBM No. 7074 digital computer.

The dispatch and control unit, which will focus mainly on the continuous monitoring and control of system generation, transmission and interconnections with neighboring power systems, will be supplied by Leeds & Northrup, which will have systems responsibility for the over - all installation's integration and performance. The general - purpose computer will handle the accounting, billing and data processing work and will do certain problem-solving for the other unit.

Central processing of billing, accounting and reporting data for the six operating companies of the AEP System is now handled by existing punchcard computers.

The AEP Service Corp.'s System Production Coordination Section, located in Columbus, Ohio, since its organization in 1948, will be moved to Canton in the summer of 1964. This section now handles the monitoring of AEP System generation, transmission and interconnections on a semi-automatic basis.

In his announcement, Cook said that present plans would not cause any loss of employment in the affected areas. He did emphasize, however, that the new computer complex was "another step forward in our continuous effort to achieve the greatest operating economies that allow us to provide superior electric service at the lowest possible rates despite the rising cost of every factor in our business".

Controversial Scientist

Oppenheimer To Receive Highest Award Of AEC

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atomic physicist J. Robert Oppenheimer, denied a security clearance by the Atomic Energy Commission nine years ago, has been selected to receive the AEC's highest honor —the $50,000 Fermi Award.

Selection of the controversial scientist, confirmed by a commission spokesman Thursday night and expected to be announced today by the White House, immediatey opened two avenues of speculation:

That the government may ask him to do secret work and that the administration wishes to see dispelled the cloud that enveloped Oppenheimer in the 1954 security case.

Oppenheimer, who will be 59 April 22, is receiving the award for "especially meritorious contribution to the development, use or control of atomic energy."

A theoretical physicist, he directed 4,500 workers at Los Alamos, N.M., from 1943 to 1945 in designing, building and testing the first atom bomb. Two months after the first successful atom bomb explosion, Oppenheimer resigned.

Since 1947, he has been director of the Institute for Advanced Study at Princeton, N.J., and from 1947 through 1952 he served as chairman of the general advisory committee to the Atomic Energy Commission.

Oppenheimer lost his security clearance by a 4-1 vote after a lengthy and bitter hearing.

Three AEC commissioners — Chairman Lewis L. Strauss, Eugene M. Zuckert and Joseph Campbell—based their decision on "his persistent and continuing association with Communists." A fourth, the late Thomas E. Murray, said "Dr. Oppenheimer was disloyal" in the sense that he disregarded security regulations that restrict the associations of a man in a sensitive position.

The lone vote upholding Oppenheimer came from Dr. Henry D. Smyth, a Princeton scientist who had worked with Oppenheimer in developing the atom bomb. "He is completely loyal," Smyth declared.

The Fermi Award—named for the late Enrico Fermi, a pioneer atomic scientist—does not reinstate Oppenheimer's security clearance.

Tri-State Schools To Start Easter Vacation Next Week

Some 5,500 city students will get a five-day vacation from classes during Holy Week. Most other Tri-State schools will suspend later next week.

City pupils will be freed from classes after school today until Easter Monday.

St. Aloysius Parochial School will dismiss after classes Wednesday and return on April 18.

Wellsville public school pupils also will be dismissed after classes Wednesday and return Monday while Immaculate Conception Parochial pupils will be off from Thursday until April 16.

Beaver Local students will start their Easter vacation with other Columbiana County school district pupils Thursday. All county students will be off Friday and April 15 for the holiday.

The Beaver Local Y-Teens will present an Easter assembly Wednesday afternoon. At Salineville High School, the Student Council will hold an assembly Wednesday.

Stanton Local students will continue school through Good Friday, but will have April 15 and 16 off for their holiday.

Hancock County Schools will be dismissed Thursday, getting Good Friday and April 15 off.

Vacation for Midland students will begin following classes Wednesday, resuming April 16.

Presentation Parochial School students at Midland will be dismissed at 3 p. m. Wednesday with classes resuming April 15.

The Western Beaver system at Industry will be closed on Good Friday and the Southern Beaver County Schools at Hookstown will be off Good Friday and return April 16.

Pottery Local Begins Strike On West Coast

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today its Executive Board has given its sanction to a strike which Local Union 327 started Wednesday against H. F. Coors, Inc., of Inglewood, Calif., a chinaware manufacturing concern.

The newly-chartered local was seeking to work out its first contract with the firm, the IBOP said.

Local 327 was granted an IBOP charter on Jan. 28. It charged that the company would agree to no wage increase or improvement of fringe benefits and sought to continue conditions "as they were before the plant was organized."

Dartmouth's golf team includes Jan Hoving, a native of Holland.

Saskatchewan Must Be Getting Warmer

SASKATOON (AP) — A study of birds suggests Saskatchewan is getting warmer.

Professor Robert W. Nero of the University of Saskatchewan at Regina, who is making a study of the various kinds of birds in the province, says the theory is supported by evidence.

The kinds of birds found in the north differ distinctly from those in the south, but in the north today there are southern species not found there 40 years ago. This, Prof. Nero says, suggests a warming trend.

Although some species appear to be pushing northward, Prof. Nero says the real surprise is the presence in northern Saskatchewan of a number of species associated with even more northerly regions.

5 Union Heads Attack Kennedy On Rail Action

CLEVELAND (AP)—The chiefs of five railroad Operating Brotherhoods have criticized the Kennedy administration for not doing more to encourage negotiating their work rules dispute with the carriers.

But a spokesman for the railroads termed the unions' statement released yesterday a pressure move.

The union heads, representing 200,000 workers, said in part:

"We have made it clear in the past that railway labor believes that free collective bargaining can work. The administration thus far has done little to encourage collective bargaining in this dispute. Practically no government effort has been exerted to bring the parties together and mediation efforts have been virtually nonexistent."

J. E. Wolfe, chief negotiator for the railroads, said in Chicago Thursday night he had not seen the union's statement but had learned of its contents by telephone.

Kasier Plant Remains Shut As Talks Fail

NEWARK, Ohio (AP) — The Kaiser Aluminum plant here, struck Monday, remained shut down today after an 8-hour negotiating session failed to settle differences between company and union.

Some progress was reported, however, and representatives of management and the United Steelworkers were to resume talks at 1 p.m. today.

The strike, termed unauthorized by the union local leadership, has idled 1,200 production and maintenance employes. Some 200 clerical and other office workers continue on the job for the time being.

3 Discount Firms Ask Ruling On 'Blue Law'

CHARLESTON (AP) — Three West Virginia discount firms have asked the Kanawha County Circuit Court to rule on the constitutionality of the Sunday closing law passed by the Legislature last month and due to go into effect June 9.

The plaintiffs, Joe's Bargain Fair of Charleston, Hecks Discount Centers, Inc., and Raleigh County Distributors, Inc., contend the so-called blue law violates both the federal and state constitution.

They also allege that enforcement of the law will result in forcing them out of business.

Dayton Reported Set To Break Dope Ring

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Authorities here say they may be near breaking a narcotics ring that illegally procures doctors' prescriptions to purchase drugs.

Phillip D. Meadows, 34, of Dayton was arrested Thursday after using a prescription planted as part of a police trap. Jack Bronstein, chief narcotics investigator for the State Pharmacy Board, said two more arrests are anticipated soon.

1 Killed, 4 Injured In Truck-Car Crash

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—A truck-car collision at the intersection of U.S. 22 and Ohio 350 near the Clinton County line resulted in the death of a Morrow woman Thursday.

The victim, Mrs. Jennie Downing, 46, was passenger in a car that rammed the truck driven by Robert Clark, 25, North Hampton. Four other occupants of the car were held for treatment. Clark and a passenger were unhurt.

Blackmore and Thomas Blackmore of the said City, County and State, and their heirs and assigns forever, to use and enjoy as an alley for all proper and legitimate purposes, such as other streets and alleys in said City are used for, in common with the said Carrie E. Blackmore and Thomas Blackmore, their heirs and assigns, forever, Wilbert A. Hobbs, his heirs and assigns forever, and such other person or persons as the said Carrie E. Blackmore and Thomas Blackmore, their heirs and assigns, or either of them may from time to time hereafter designate, permit or allow in, to and over the following described tract of land:

Situate in the City of East Liverpool, County of Columbiana and State of Ohio, located, bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Commencing in the west line of a sixteen foot alley in C. E. Blackmore's Addition of lots to said City which point bears north twenty-three (23°) degrees east one (1) foot and six (6) inches from lot number Nine hundred and Three (903) at the northwest corner of the property and premises above described, and running thence with the west line of said alley north 23 degrees east fourteen feet and six inches to a point in line with the south line of Lot Number Nine Hundred and Four (904); thence north 67 degrees west twenty-four (24) feet; thence south 23 degrees west fourteen (14) feet and six (6) inches to the northwest corner of the tract of land hereinabove conveyed to said grantees; thence south 67 degrees east with the north line of tract above conveyed twenty-four (24) feet to the place of beginning, such rights to always remain free from obstruction and open to said grantees, their heirs and assigns forever, and also the said Carrie E. Blackmore and Thomas Blackmore, their heirs and assigns, and such other persons as heretofore mentioned and referred to, for the uses and purposes above mentioned. The said grant includes among other rights the right of said grantees, their heirs and assigns forever, and such other person or persons as are heretofore mentioned and referred to, the right to lay and maintain paving, gas and water pipes and fixtures, electric lights and telephone apparatus, etc., provided, however, that such improvements shall be at the expense of the party desiring and making the same; the hereinabove described right of way or easement is the same as was granted, bargained, sold and conveyed to the said Moses E. Golding by and from Carrie E. Blackmore and Thomas Blackmore by a warranty deed dated the second day of November, 1898, and recorded in Deed Book Number 236, Page 187, of the record of deeds of the said Columbiana County, and all the estate, title and interest of the said Thomas Cloran, either in law or equity, in and to the said premises, excepting and reserving such rights, privileges and interests as are hereby excepted and reserved by the said grantors for the said Carrie E. Blackmore and Thomas Blackmore and Wilbert Hobbs, their heirs and assigns, forever; being the same premises that were conveyed by M. E. Golding and wife to Michael J. Cloran, which is duly recorded in Vol. 256, Page 86, of the records of deeds of Columbiana County, Ohio.

Being the premises conveyed by Thomas H. Cloran to Francis J. Cloran, Clara Wilhelm and Anna Judge by deed dated December 14, 1921, and recorded in Deed Book Volume 450, Page 113, of the record of deeds in Columbiana County, Ohio.

Said Premises Located at 115 East Sixth Street, East Liverpool, Ohio.

Appraised at $27,500.00, and cannot be sold for less than TWO-THIRDS of that amount.

Said premises to be sold as the property of the parties to the above action, on an order of sale in Partition from the Common Pleas Court of Columbiana County, Ohio, and directed to me, the undersigned Sheriff.

Power System To Install Big Computer At Canton

CANTON — Plans of the American Electric Power System to install the electric utility industry's most advanced large - scale computer information and operating center here were announced Thursday by President Donald C. Cook.

The computer center will achieve automatic, minute - by - minute control of the AEP System's seven - state electric power network and centralization of its accounting and billing operations.

It will be linked by the system's own 1,700-mile microwave communication network with satellite computers in Fort Wayne, Ind.; and Roanoke, Va., and with the system's 16 major power plants. Final links in the microwave grid will be completed simultaneously with the Canton center.

The center will cost close to $6 million, including the necessary microwave extensions, and is scheduled for completion in late 1964. It will be located in a three-story addition to the Ohio Power Co. General Office building now under construction in Canton. Ohio Power is one of six electric utility operating companies making up the AEP System.

The installation will consist of two separate but compatible transistorized computer systems:

An automatic load - frequency control and economic dispatch system, a combination that will include a Leeds & Northrup Co. analog computer control system and digital telemetering and an International Business Machines Corp. No. 1710 digital computer system;

A large - scale, tape - oriented, general - purpose IBM No. 7074 digital computer.

The dispatch and control unit, which will focus mainly on the continuous monitoring and control of system generation, transmission and interconnections with neighboring power systems, will be supplied by Leeds & Northrup, which will have systems responsibility for the over - all installation's integration and performance. The general - purpose computer will handle the accounting, billing and data processing work and will do certain problem-solving for the other unit.

Central processing of billing, accounting and reporting data for the six operating companies of the AEP System is now handled by existing punchcard computers.

The AEP Service Corp.'s System Production Coordination Section, located in Columbus, Ohio, since its organization in 1948, will be moved to Canton in the summer of 1964. This section now handles the monitoring of AEP System generation, transmission and interconnections on a semi-automatic basis.

In his announcement, Cook said that present plans would not cause any loss of employment in the affected areas. He did emphasize, however, that the new computer complex was "another step forward in our continuous effort to achieve the greatest operating economies that allow us to provide superior electric service at the lowest possible rates despite the rising cost of every factor in our business".

Controversial Scientist

Oppenheimer To Receive Highest Award Of AEC

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atomic physicist J. Robert Oppenheimer, denied a security clearance by the Atomic Energy Commission nine years ago, has been selected to receive the AEC's highest honor —the $50,000 Fermi Award.

Selection of the controversial scientist, confirmed by a commission spokesman Thursday night and expected to be announced today by the White House, immediatey opened two avenues of speculation:

That the government may ask him to do secret work and that the administration wishes to see dispelled the cloud that enveloped Oppenheimer in the 1954 security case.

Oppenheimer, who will be 59 April 22, is receiving the award for "especially meritorious contribution to the development, use or control of atomic energy."

A theoretical physicist, he directed 4,500 workers at Los Alamos, N.M., from 1943 to 1945 in designing, building and testing the first atom bomb. Two months after the first successful atom bomb explosion, Oppenheimer resigned.

Since 1947, he has been director of the Institute for Advanced Study at Princeton, N.J., and from 1947 through 1952 he served as chairman of the general advisory committee to the Atomic Energy Commission.

Oppenheimer lost his security clearance by a 4-1 vote after a lengthy and bitter hearing.

Three AEC commissioners — Chairman Lewis L. Strauss, Eugene M. Zuckert and Joseph Campbell—based their decision on "his persistent and continuing association with Communists." A fourth, the late Thomas E. Murray, said "Dr. Oppenheimer was disloyal" in the sense that he disregarded security regulations that restrict the associations of a man in a sensitive position.

The lone vote upholding Oppenheimer came from Dr. Henry D. Smyth, a Princeton scientist who had worked with Oppenheimer in developing the atom bomb. "He is completely loyal," Smyth declared.

The Fermi Award—named for the late Enrico Fermi, a pioneer atomic scientist—does not reinstate Oppenheimer's security clearance.

Tri-State Schools To Start Easter Vacation Next Week

Some 5,500 city students will get a five-day vacation from classes during Holy Week. Most other Tri-State schools will suspend later next week.

City pupils will be freed from classes after school today until Easter Monday.

St. Aloysius Parochial School will dismiss after classes Wednesday and return on April 18.

Wellsville public school pupils also will be dismissed after classes Wednesday and return Monday while Immaculate Conception Parochial pupils will be off from Thursday until April 16.

Beaver Local students will start their Easter vacation with other Columbiana County school district pupils Thursday. All county students will be off Friday and April 15 for the holiday.

The Beaver Local Y-Teens will present an Easter assembly Wednesday afternoon. At Salineville High School, the Student Council will hold an assembly Wednesday.

Stanton Local students will continue school through Good Friday, but will have April 15 and 16 off for their holiday.

Hancock County Schools will be dismissed Thursday, getting Good Friday and April 15 off.

Vacation for Midland students will begin following classes Wednesday, resuming April 16.

Presentation Parochial School students at Midland will be dismissed at 3 p. m. Wednesday with classes resuming April 15.

The Western Beaver system at Industry will be closed on Good Friday and the Southern Beaver County Schools at Hookstown will be off Good Friday and return April 16.

Pottery Local Begins Strike On West Coast

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today its Executive Board has given its sanction to a strike which Local Union 327 started Wednesday against H. F. Coors, Inc., of Inglewood, Calif., a chinaware manufacturing concern.

The newly-chartered local was seeking to work out its first contract with the firm, the IBOP said.

Local 327 was granted an IBOP charter on Jan. 28. It charged that the company would agree to no wage increase or improvement of fringe benefits and sought to continue conditions "as they were before the plant was organized."

Dartmouth's golf team includes Jan Hoving, a native of Holland.

Saskatchewan Must Be Getting Warmer

SASKATOON (AP) — A study of birds suggests Saskatchewan is getting warmer.

Professor Robert W. Nero of the University of Saskatchewan at Regina, who is making a study of the various kinds of birds in the province, says the theory is supported by evidence.

The kinds of birds found in the north differ distinctly from those in the south, but in the north today there are southern species not found there 40 years ago. This, Prof. Nero says, suggests a warming trend.

Although some species appear to be pushing northward, Prof. Nero says the real surprise is the presence in northern Saskatchewan of a number of species associated with even more northerly regions.

5 Union Heads Attack Kennedy On Rail Action

CLEVELAND (AP)—The chiefs of five railroad Operating Brotherhoods have criticized the Kennedy administration for not doing more to encourage negotiating their work rules dispute with the carriers.

But a spokesman for the railroads termed the unions' statement released yesterday a pressure move.

The union heads, representing 200,000 workers, said in part:

"We have made it clear in the past that railway labor believes that free collective bargaining can work. The administration thus far has done little to encourage collective bargaining in this dispute. Practically no government effort has been exerted to bring the parties together and mediation efforts have been virtually nonexistent."

J. E. Wolfe, chief negotiator for the railroads, said in Chicago Thursday night he had not seen the union's statement but had learned of its contents by telephone.

Kasier Plant Remains Shut As Talks Fail

NEWARK, Ohio (AP) — The Kaiser Aluminum plant here, struck Monday, remained shut down today after an 8-hour negotiating session failed to settle differences between company and union.

Some progress was reported, however, and representatives of management and the United Steelworkers were to resume talks at 1 p.m. today.

The strike, termed unauthorized by the union local leadership, has idled 1,200 production and maintenance employes. Some 200 clerical and other office workers continue on the job for the time being.

3 Discount Firms Ask Ruling On 'Blue Law'

CHARLESTON (AP) — Three West Virginia discount firms have asked the Kanawha County Circuit Court to rule on the constitutionality of the Sunday closing law passed by the Legislature last month and due to go into effect June 9.

The plaintiffs, Joe's Bargain Fair of Charleston, Hecks Discount Centers, Inc., and Raleigh County Distributors, Inc., contend the so-called blue law violates both the federal and state constitution.

They also allege that enforcement of the law will result in forcing them out of business.

Dayton Reported Set To Break Dope Ring

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Authorities here say they may be near breaking a narcotics ring that illegally procures doctors' prescriptions to purchase drugs.

Phillip D. Meadows, 34, of Dayton was arrested Thursday after using a prescription planted as part of a police trap. Jack Bronstein, chief narcotics investigator for the State Pharmacy Board, said two more arrests are anticipated soon.

1 Killed, 4 Injured In Truck-Car Crash

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—A truck-car collision at the intersection of U.S. 22 and Ohio 350 near the Clinton County line resulted in the death of a Morrow woman Thursday.

The victim, Mrs. Jennie Downing, 46, was passenger in a car that rammed the truck driven by Robert Clark, 25, North Hampton. Four other occupants of the car were held for treatment. Clark and a passenger were unhurt.

4-H News

Debbie Galeno and Diana and Bill Persohn presented safety demonstrations at the meeting of the Liverpool Township Hilltoppers 4-H Club Monday night at the home of Bill Persohn of Campground Rd.

Notice is hereby given, that on Tuesday the 9th day of April A. D. 1963, at the hour of 1:00 o'clock. P. M., I will offer for sale at public auction at the door of the Court House in Lisbon, Ohio, the following real estate, situate in the County of Columbiana and State of Ohio, and in the City of East Liverpool, to-wit:

Situate in the City of East Liverpool, County of Columbiana and State of Ohio, and known as and being that certain parcel of ground bounded and described as follows: Beginning in the northerly line of Sixth Street at the southwesterly corner of Lot number Nine Hundred and Three (903) in Blackmore's Addition to said City; and thence running northwardly ninety-one and one-half (91½) feet, by and along the westerly line of said Lot Number Nine Hundred and Three (903), and the extension thereof, to a point; thence running westwardly twenty-four (24) feet, by and along a line parallel with the northerly line of the said Sixth Street to a point; thence running southwardly ninety-one and one-half (91½) feet, by and along a line parallel with the westerly line of said Lot Number Nine Hundred and Three (903), and the extension thereof, to a point in the northerly line of the said Sixth Street; thence running eastwardly Twenty-four (24) feet, by and along the northerly line of said Sixth Street, to the place of beginning; the hereinabove described real estate is a parcel of ground situated immediately west of an adjoining Lot Nine Hundred and Three (903) in Blackmore's Addition to said city of East Liverpool, and has a frontage of twenty-four (24) feet on Sixth Street and extends back therefrom rectangularly Ninety - one and one - half (91½) feet with a uniform breadth of twenty-four (24) feet; (Being the southeast part of 2745½ Assessor's Lots) being the premises described in warranty deed, recorded in deed book 450, page 113, which deed also contained the following provisions and conveyances:

And also the right to the said grantees, their heirs and assigns, forever, for the benefit and use of the above described premises only (but the fee in and to the premises hereinafter described to be and remain in Carrie E. Blackmore and Thomas Blackmore of the said City, County and State, and their heirs and assigns forever, to use and enjoy as an alley for all proper and legitimate purposes, such as other streets and alleys in said City are used for, in common with the said Carrie E. Blackmore and Thomas Blackmore, their heirs and assigns, forever, Wilbert A. Hobbs, his heirs and assigns forever, and such other person or persons as the said Carrie E. Blackmore and Thomas Blackmore, their heirs and assigns, or either of them may from time to time hereafter designate, permit or allow in, to and over the following described tract of land:

Situate in the City of East Liverpool, County of Columbiana and State of Ohio, located, bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Commencing in the west line of a sixteen foot alley in C. E. Blackmore's Addition of lots to said City which point bears north twenty-three (23°) degrees east one (1) foot and six (6) inches from lot number Nine hundred and Three (903) at the northwest corner of the property and premises above described, and running thence with the west line of said alley north 23 degrees east fourteen feet and six inches to a point in line with the south line of Lot Number Nine Hundred and Four (904); thence north 67 degrees west twenty-four (24) feet; thence south 23 degrees west fourteen (14) feet and six (6) inches to the northwest corner of the tract of land hereinabove conveyed to said grantees; thence south 67 degrees east with the north line of tract above conveyed twenty-four (24) feet to the place of beginning, such rights to always remain free from obstruction and open to said grantees, their heirs and assigns forever, and also the said Carrie E. Blackmore and Thomas Blackmore, their heirs and assigns, and such other persons as heretofore mentioned and referred to, for the uses and purposes above mentioned. The said grant includes among other rights the right of said grantees, their heirs and assigns forever, and such other person or persons as are heretofore mentioned and referred to, the right to lay and maintain paving, gas and water pipes and fixtures, electric lights and telephone apparatus, etc., provided, however, that such improvements shall be at the expense of the party desiring and making the same; the hereinabove described right of way or easement is the same as was granted, bargained, sold and conveyed to the said Moses E. Golding by and from Carrie E. Blackmore and Thomas Blackmore by a warranty deed dated the second day of November, 1898, and recorded in Deed Book Number 236, Page 187, of the record of deeds of the said Columbiana County, and all the estate, title and interest of the said Thomas Cloran, either in law or equity, in and to the said premises, excepting and reserving such rights, privileges and interests as are hereby excepted and reserved by the said grantors for the said Carrie E. Blackmore and Thomas Blackmore and Wilbert Hobbs, their heirs and assigns, forever; being the same premises that were conveyed by M. E. Golding and wife to Michael J. Cloran, which is duly recorded in Vol. 256, Page 86, of the records of deeds of Columbiana County, Ohio.

Being the premises conveyed by Thomas H. Cloran to Francis J. Cloran, Clara Wilhelm and Anna Judge by deed dated December 14, 1921, and recorded in Deed Book Volume 450, Page 113, of the record of deeds in Columbiana County, Ohio.

Said Premises Located at 115 East Sixth Street, East Liverpool, Ohio.

Appraised at $27,500.00, and cannot be sold for less than TWO-THIRDS of that amount.

Said premises to be sold as the property of the parties to the above action, on an order of sale in Partition from the Common Pleas Court of Columbiana County, Ohio, and directed to me, the undersigned Sheriff.

LITTLE BLDG. "ON THE DIAMOND"

Junior Editors Quiz on BAKING

QUESTION: What happens when you bake a cake?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: There are two main kinds of cake. One contains "shortening," which means butter, margarine or some kind of mild solid fat. The other kind is cooked without shortening—like sponge and angel food cake. Betty is making her cake with shortening. The main ingredients going into it, besides the shortening, will be water or milk, sugar, eggs, flour, flavoring and — most important — baking powder. This is the miracle working ingredient which will make the cake rise in the pan. It is a fine white powder containing starch, sodium bicarbonate or baking soda, and ingredients which can form acid. Starch keeps the powder from acting until it combines with a liquid. But, as the cake is mixed it does come into contact with liquid, baking soda reacts with the acid-forming ingredient to form carbon-dioxide gas. Bubbles of this, trapped inside, expand and make the cake rise; the heat of baking expands them still further. Later the gas disappears. There are three types of baking powders: tartrate, which begins to make gas as soon as it comes into contact with the liquid; phosphate, which acts moderately soon, and S. A. S. phosphate which acts slowly until heated.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Eat cake, if you're a boy. Same if you're a girl, but of course you'll want to learn how to make them. Here's what a famous cookbook gives as some reasons for failure: using measuring cups and spoons which aren't standard; failing to sift cake flour; beating at the wrong time.

Pamela Witten of Akron, Ohio, wins $10 for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review and you may win $10, or the weekly grand prize of a set of Britannica Junior Encyclopedias.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: They say children can be terribly cruel. Well, how about adults who should know better?

Our child was in an accordian recital last week. Seventy students appeared on the program—not a single child was left out. They all practiced hard on their little numbers and I'm sure every mother and father felt in his heart that his child was a star.

The teacher rented a hall for the recital. There was no admission charge. It could have been a lovely evening, but the adults ruined it. Most of the parents waited only to hear their own child perform, then they marched out of the hall.

The program wasn't boring. There was a good variety of numbers—waltzes, polkas, rock 'n' roll, light opera and boogie-woogie. Our child was next to the last to perform and my husband and I were almost the only ones left in the hall. Comment, please.—DESERTED.

Dear Deserted: It was extremely rude of the parents to leave with their children before the others had a chance to perform. But this story has another side.

I enjoy accordian music as well as the next person, but I would not wish to listen to 70 numbers — even if Lawrence Welk was playing.

Next year let's hope the teacher schedules two recital nights. Duets and quartettes would help too.

Be Frank

Dear Ann: My husband and I never were blessed with children of our own but our nieces and nephews were like daughters and sons. We even helped three boys and a girl through college, which was quite remarkable, because my husband always has been on a small salary.

Now we are in our mid-60s and trying to make ends meet on a modest pension.

Our nieces and nephews are grown and doing well financially. Their children are like grandchildren to us. And this is where the problem comes in.

Our home is large and we live near two schools. It's convenient to drop off the kids for supper, for the night, or for the weekend. We are never without three or four extra at every meal.

Last weekend groceries cost us $58. We had 11 to dinner Friday, 14 on Saturday and 20 on Sunday. The kids drank eight gallons of milk. We love them but we just can't afford to feed them. What shall we do?—AUNT KATE.

Dear Aunt: Apparently your nieces and nephews are not bashful about unloading their children. Be equally frank with them.

Suggest that when they drop off the kids they also drop off a few gallons of milk, some lamb chops, steaks, hamburger, fresh fruit and vegetables.

Dear Liz. . .

Dear Ann: Curtis and I have gone together for more than a year. The wedding date is set for July. My problem is his family.

Whenever we go to Curtis's home his mother and sister manage to turn the conversation around to Liz—the girl Curtis used to go with. (She married someone else.)

Liz, of course, was beautiful, brilliant, talented, witty and came from a fine family. I can offer him none of these things, but I do have a good job, which is what counts right now—since Curtis wants to get his master's degree this year and has to go to school full time to do it.

Last night his mother called me Liz three times. Nobody batted an eyelash. I am sick of all this but don't know what to do about it. Help me, please—PLAIN JANE.

Dear Jane: And pray tell where is Curtis when all this is going on? Out to lunch?

Tell him you're bored with the broken record. Ask him to tell his mother and sister to change the meedle—and you do mean needle.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

BUNIONS NOT "INHERITED"

Q. Can bunions be removed surgically? Is this condition inherited?

A. "Bad feet" seems to run in families but if heredity is as important as some people think, one would expect to see many more bunions in children. Instead, most bunion sufferers are adults. The condition seems to be due to weakened foot muscles, brought on by age and stress. Yes, bunions can be removed surgically but the operation should be performed by a physician skilled in foot care. Removal of the bunion usually also requires reconstructive surgery of the "toe tendons" to prevent recurrence.

WRINKLE-REMOVER COSMETICS WORTHLESS

Q. Will hormone creams actually remove wrinkles?

A. Hormones used in "wrinkle-removing" skin cream and other cosmetics haven't been shown effective and may be dangerous. This is the conclusion of a physician who recently reported to the American Medical Association's Committee on Cosmetics.

PORT CLINTON, Ohio (AP)—A father of four small children was crushed to death while he was working under a car that slipped off a jack.

Killed late Thursday was Eugene Berlin, 22, of nearby Oak Harbor.

West Virginia Restores Cuts In Welfare Aid

CHARLESTON (AP) — A large group of West Virginia welfare recipients will be restored to former levels of relief as the result of three-days of budget study by the State Board of Public Works.

Welfare Commissioner W. Bernard Smith was given the order yesterday to restore a 25 to 28 per cent cutback in payments under the Aid to Dependent Children and Work and Training programs.

Smith had invoked the reduction April 1 due to a shortage of funds to carry the programs through June 30, the end of the current fiscal year.

However, the board, after a round of meetings with Legislative leaders, state budget office representatives and Gov. Barron, called off the reductions yesterday and announced through Curtis B. Trent Jr., the governor's executive assistant, that the cuts will be fully restored.

Trent said the 140,000 persons affected by the cutback "will not lose one penny."

Arts Club Plans Chester Operetta

The Chester Arts Club will sponsor the Victor Herbert operetta, "The Red Mill," April 23 at 8 p. m. in the Chester High School Auditorium.

The show will be presented by the Upper Beaver Valley Operetta company, under the direction of Anthony Caputo.

Tickets may be purchased at the door or from any member.

Dravo Gets Contract For Dam And Locks

CHARLESTON (AP) — The Dravo Construction Co. of Pittsburgh has been awarded a $22,485,063 contract for work on the Belleville dam and locks in the Ohio River near Parkersburg, West Virginia's congressional delegation announced here Thursday.

The contract calls for construction of two concrete locks, operations building and guard walls, and removal of the existing cofferdam.

The dam site is 10 miles south of Parkersburg. The new roller-type dam that will eliminate the old type low dams is already under construction.

Smiths Ferry IOOF Will Install April 16

Line Island Odd Fellows Lodge 742 of Smiths Ferry will hold installation of officers April 16 with the grand master and the team from Monaca in charge.

Lunch will be under the direction of William Bradford, John Chuldenko and A. C. Stevens.

In other action at Tuesday's meeting, the lodge discussed installation of an oil furnace in the lodge hall before winter.

Rudy Zetz, noble grand, was in charge with 14 attending.

Next meeting is Tuesday.

County Park District Ok'd In Montgomery

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A county park district for Montgomery County has been authorized after 24 persons testified in a public hearing of the advantages of such an organization.

The county's commissioners have supported such a move, which will include a board of three trustees to create parks throughout the county. The commissioners, who authorized the park district Thursday night, have already approved $18,000 as operational money for the first year.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: They say children can be terribly cruel. Well, how about adults who should know better?

Our child was in an accordian recital last week. Seventy students appeared on the program—not a single child was left out. They all practiced hard on their little numbers and I'm sure every mother and father felt in his heart that his child was a star.

The teacher rented a hall for the recital. There was no admission charge. It could have been a lovely evening, but the adults ruined it. Most of the parents waited only to hear their own child perform, then they marched out of the hall.

The program wasn't boring. There was a good variety of numbers—waltzes, polkas, rock 'n' roll, light opera and boogie-woogie. Our child was next to the last to perform and my husband and I were almost the only ones left in the hall. Comment, please.—DESERTED.

Dear Deserted: It was extremely rude of the parents to leave with their children before the others had a chance to perform. But this story has another side.

I enjoy accordian music as well as the next person, but I would not wish to listen to 70 numbers — even if Lawrence Welk was playing.

Next year let's hope the teacher schedules two recital nights. Duets and quartettes would help too.

Be Frank

Dear Ann: My husband and I never were blessed with children of our own but our nieces and nephews were like daughters and sons. We even helped three boys and a girl through college, which was quite remarkable, because my husband always has been on a small salary.

Now we are in our mid-60s and trying to make ends meet on a modest pension.

Our nieces and nephews are grown and doing well financially. Their children are like grandchildren to us. And this is where the problem comes in.

Our home is large and we live near two schools. It's convenient to drop off the kids for supper, for the night, or for the weekend. We are never without three or four extra at every meal.

Last weekend groceries cost us $58. We had 11 to dinner Friday, 14 on Saturday and 20 on Sunday. The kids drank eight gallons of milk. We love them but we just can't afford to feed them. What shall we do?—AUNT KATE.

Dear Aunt: Apparently your nieces and nephews are not bashful about unloading their children. Be equally frank with them.

Suggest that when they drop off the kids they also drop off a few gallons of milk, some lamb chops, steaks, hamburger, fresh fruit and vegetables.

Dear Liz. . .

Dear Ann: Curtis and I have gone together for more than a year. The wedding date is set for July. My problem is his family.

Whenever we go to Curtis's home his mother and sister manage to turn the conversation around to Liz—the girl Curtis used to go with. (She married someone else.)

Liz, of course, was beautiful, brilliant, talented, witty and came from a fine family. I can offer him none of these things, but I do have a good job, which is what counts right now—since Curtis wants to get his master's degree this year and has to go to school full time to do it.

BUNIONS NOT "INHERITED"

Q. Can bunions be removed surgically? Is this condition inherited?

A. "Bad feet" seems to run in families but if heredity is as important as some people think, one would expect to see many more bunions in children. Instead, most bunion sufferers are adults. The condition seems to be due to weakened foot muscles, brought on by age and stress. Yes, bunions can be removed surgically but the operation should be performed by a physician skilled in foot care. Removal of the bunion usually also requires reconstructive surgery of the "toe tendons" to prevent recurrence.

WRINKLE-REMOVER COSMETICS WORTHLESS

Q. Will hormone creams actually remove wrinkles?

A. Hormones used in "wrinkle-removing" skin cream and other cosmetics haven't been shown effective and may be dangerous. This is the conclusion of a physician who recently reported to the American Medical Association's Committee on Cosmetics.
